Revenue Appointments — Agricultural Department—Binckley's Resignation Not Accepted.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, September 16, 1868.

INTERNAL REVENUE APPOINTMENTS.

The following appointments have been made under the Internal Revenue law: Storkeeper, Alexander Semple, Cincinnati; Gaugers, Thomas Taylor, 12th district, Pennsylvania; John Hurdecliffe, 12th district, Illinois.

AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

The Commissoner of Agriculture, Hon. Horace Capron, has completed arrangements for exchanges of cereals, seed, medicinal and other plants with various institutions and several governments of different divisions of the globe.

ENTERED UPON HIS DUTIES.

Colonel Marr, the first and only Supervisor as yet appointed, left Washington to-night to enter upon his duties in Missouri and contiguous territory.

NOT ACCEPTED.

Mr. Binckley's resignation as Solicitor of Internal Revenue has not yet been accepted by the Secretary of the Treasury. He has not entered the Bureau since his return from New York for business purposes.

THE INDIANS.

Running off and Stampeding Stock--Pursuit by Cavalry.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

FT. WALLACE, Kan., Sept. 16.—A report brought to this post at noon to-day states that a party of twenty-five Indians ran off twenty mules from Clark & Co., hay contractors, within a half mile of Pond City, four miles west of here. They were pursued by the owners and citizens, but not retaken. About twelve o'clock the Indians were seen making for the quartermaster's herd, twelve miles from this post, but turned back when they discovered the herd had been driven into the carroll.

At two o'clock P. M. citizens came in reporting that a band of one hundred Indians in sight of Pond City had just stampeded twelve hundred head from a herd of twenty-five hundred cattle, mules and horses which passed through here yesterday en route for California. This herd belonged to about thirty-five Texans, who have their families with them.

Capt. Carpenter, with a company of the Tenth U. S. Colored Cavalry, arrived here from Fort Hays this afternoon, and were immediately sent in pursuit of the Indians taking the Texas herd, and a late report states that all were recaptured after a chase of fifteen miles.

An Omaha dispatch says advices from the North Platte state Spotted Tail, with about one thousand Sioux, is starting for the reservation near Fort Randall. Gen. Augur was there and personally arranging matters.

A Denver dispatch says the Indians captured twelve horses from a grading party on the Denver Pacific Railroad.

A new company of scouts has been formed at Golden City and another at Colorado City for service against the Indians.

A Helena, Montana, dispatch says snow fell there on the 13th and again last night.

Application for a New Trial in the Assassination Case--Rifle Tournament.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

OTTAWA, Sept. 14—Application for a new trial in the case of Whelan will be made to the Judges at Toronto, in November. The grounds on which the application will be made is that the Judge, on trial, refused to allow the challenges of jurors before the peremptory challenges were exhausted. Prominent lawyers think the ground is a good and substantial one.

MONTREAL, Sept. 16.—The rifle tournament opened at La Prairie yesterday. About fifteen thousand volunteers are encamped there. Four hundred entries for the first match in the tournament were made during the last ten days. The Provincial Exhibition was opened yesterday by Lieutenant Governor Bolleau.

OTTAWA, September 16.—With a view of relieving the starving population of the Red River settlement, the government has decided to expend a considerable sum in the construction of Fort Garry and opening up the road to Red river. Workmen are to receive provis ons in part payment of wages. An experienced agent proceeds to Chicago forthwith to procure supplies. Subscriptions are also being received in various cities in the province for the relief of the distressed inhabitants of the Red river country.

The Philadelphia Child Murder.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—The mysterious child murder last week has not been unravelled. The inquest was continued today. A girl testified that on the night of the murder she saw a man carrying and trying to quiet a child. She described the child and man; the former no doubt was the murdered girl. She says on Sunday night she saw the same man again in the street, and that she can identify him if brought before her. She says he wore false whiskers, as a portion of them fell off as he was carrying the child. Other girls testify to having seen a man carrying a child on the night of the murder. All the witnesses agree in describing him.

Verdict in a Libel Case.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

DETROIT, September 16.—In the libel suit brought by Emil Anneck, ex-Auditor General of the State of Michigan, against the Detroit Advertiser and Tribune, in which damages were laid at fifty thousand dollars, after a seven days' trial, a verdict of six cents damages was awarded plaintiff. He was charged with incompetency as a State officer, and the defense plead the truth in justification.

The International Cricket Match.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, September 16.—The International Cricket Match between "All England Eleven" and Twenty-two New York commenced to-day on St. George's ground, Hoboken. All England scored 124 runs for loss of seven wickets. The match will be continued to-morrow and Friday.

Bridge Repaired.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ALBANY, September 16.—The Central Railroad bridge at East Creek has been replaced and all trains are running on time.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

Republican Majority Nearly 23,000.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 16.—The latest dispatches from Maine, covering reports from over three hundred towns, indicate a Republican majority of nearly twenty-three thousand, a Radical gain of about ten thousand. Democratic gain on the vote seven thousand. The vote was the largest ever cast, being one hundred and thirty-three thousand.

TENNESSEE.

Proclamation from Gov. Brownlow for the Organization of the Militia--Desperadoe Arrested.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NASHVILLE, Sept. 16.—The Banner received by telegraph from Knoxville today a proclamation from Gov. Brownlow and issued it in extra form. The proclamation declares there are armed bands of secret conspirators against the State who have been commiting and continue to commit outrages upon defenseless and inoffensive loyal citizens, recites the act of the Legislature giving the Governor power to call out the militia, and says:

In pursuance of this act I call upon the good, loyal and patriotic people, white and colored, of every county in the State, to proceed without delay and raise companies of loyal and able-bodied men, and report the same to me at Nashville. Whether any of the companies, white or colored, so organized will be actually called into the field, will depend entirely upon the conduct of the people themselves in the several counties. I earnestly hope that there will be no occasion to call out these troops, but that the efforts of all the citizens to preserve and maintain the peace will succeed, and thus obviate the necessity of this stern resort. But if, unhappily, better councils do not prevail, and order is not restored, and I am compelled to put down armed marauders by force, I propose to meet them with such numbers and in such manner as the exigency shall demand, whatever may be the consequence. I will not be deterred from the discharge of my duty herein by threats of violence from rebel speakers or rebel newspapers, nor by any other means of intimidation.

The Governor says he prefers that these troops shall be raised in East Tennessee, and therefore does not limit the number of companies in any county. In reference to the promise of Federal troops to keep peace he says: "should the Department Commander be furnished with sufficient force to keep order I will cheerfully co-operate with him, that State guards may not be called into service."

MEMPHIS, Sept. 16.—A notorious negro named D. Woods was shot and severely wounded by the police last night while attempting to escape after being arrested. Woods was the leader of the party who attempted to murder Mr. Alexander on the Fernando road a few days since.

NEW YORK CITY.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 16, 1868.

The steamship Queen City sailed to-day for Aspinwall. Among her passengers were Minister Cauldwell, en route to Bolivia, and Hiram Ketchum, Collector of Customs at Alaska.

The case of Martin and Ree, charged with forging the name of Hunt, Helmer & Vorhees, of St. Louis, for $3,000, commenced to-day.

John Rogers was to-day committed by the Coroner for trial, an inquest proving him to have killed Michael Malone on Monday night.

Thomas McCabe, who was accidentally shot by a policeman last night died to-day in hospital.

The Rollins conspiracy case was again adjourned over.

The steamship Eagle, from Havana, has arrived.

Billiard Match for Championship.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CHICAGO, September 16.—The billiard match for the championship of America, and a stake of one thousand dollars, 1,500 points, between Joseph Dion, of Montréal, and John McDevitt, of Chicago, was played to-night at Library Hall. The game was called at 8:15. McDevitt in the ninth innings made the extraordinary run of 1,462, closing the game in his favor before ten o'clock. The score stood at the close: McDevitt, 1,502; Dion, 408. The Hall was densely crowded, and great enthusiasm prevailed, but no ill feeling or disorder was manifested.

Soldiers Mass Convention at Philadelphia.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

PHILADELPHIA, September 16—The Committee of Arrangements for the Grand Mass Convention of Soldiers and Sailors, to be held here on the first and second of next month, announce that delegates and their families will be carried here over the Pennsylvania Central and Philadelphia and Erie railroads at two cents per mile and return free of charge. It is expected that similar arrangements will be made with Eastern, Southern and Western roads.

Cornell University — Professors Elected.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ITHICA, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The following Professors of Cornell Institute were elected to-day: Rhetoric and Oratory, H. B. Sprague, Principal of State Normal School, Connecticut; General and Agricultural Geology, Prof. C. Frederick Hartt, of Vassar College; Botany and Horticulture, Prof. A. N. Prentiss, of Michigan Agricultural College; Director of Shops, John L. Morris, of Ovid. The other professorships were deferred one week. The University opens October 7th.

Supposed Murderer Arrested.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 16.—A man named Abrams, supposed to be the murderer of Jacob Young and wife, has been arrested and is now in jail. Abrams was formerly a partner in business with Young. The evidence before the Coroner's jury to-day shows that the shot gun found near the corpse of the murdered man was purchased by Abrams from a pawn broker a few days previous. Abrams has heretofore sustained a good character.

The New Rebellion in Arkansas.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, September 16.—A special dispatch from Little Rock, Arkansas, to the Democrat, says: Two members of the Legislature, the County Clerk, United States Assessor and Collector, and two United States contractors for building freedmen's school houses, have been driven from Lafayette county. It is also stated that three white and eighteen black men have been killed.

Registration for English Parliamentary Elections — Women Claiming the Right to Vote—Their Claim Rejected by the Courts—The War-Peace Fever—Importation of Hay from the United States Interdicted—The Insurrectionists in Bulgaria, Turkey, Defeated in Battle.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ENGLAND.

LONDON, September 16.—The importation of hay from the United States hereafter will be allowed only under a license from the Privy Council. The prevalence of the cattle disease in various parts of America is the cause of this step.

LONDON, September 16.—The registration of voters for the forthcoming Parliamentary elections, which will commence about the 13th of November next, is being prosecuted with great diligence throughout the British isles. At many places women formally demanded their names to be placed on the lists of voters, on the ground that they possessed the property qualifications prescribed by the Reform bill, and the legal aspects of the question, as well as the extent of the movement, have excited much public interest on the subject. Over six thousand women claimed the right to be registered in Manchester alone, and their demands were argued in an able speech before the registering officials by Miss Lydia Brecker. After argument on both sides the claim was disallowed. Similar proceedings took place in other towns and in some cases the question has been finally brought before the Judges of Westminster. They have overruled the application of the women to be registered as voters on the ground that an amendment to the Reform bill, which was proposed in the House of Commons by Mr. Mills, substituting the word "person" for "man" was rejected. By this action the House clearly indicated the intent and purpose of the bill in this respect.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—It is reported in Paris that the speech of the King of Prussia, at Kiel, excites no animosity in the French Cabinet. The words of the King are regarded as having reference merely to the events of 1866, and not as susceptible of any application to the present state of affairs in Europe.

TURKEY.

BELGRADE, Sept. 16.—Reports have been received here that a battle has been fought between Turkish troops and the Bulgarian insurgents near Philippopel. The latter made the attack, but after a desperate fight were repulsed, pursued and driven back to the Balkan Mountains. The Turkish loss was heavy. Over two hundred are reported to have been killed while defending one of the forts assaulted by the rebels. The loss of the latter is unknown.

FRANCE.

PARIS, September 16.—In an article in the last Revue des Deux Mondes, Guizot says he has no doubt of the desire of Napoleon for the preservation of the peace, and urges a reduction of the army as the only effective pledge of peace.

The Moniteur has a tranquilizing leader, in which it reviews the relations of the great powers and considers the situation calm and peaceful.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, September 16.—Bismarck has been ordered by his physician to go to England.

KIEL, September 16.—King William will review the Prussian fleet here.

BERLIN, September 16.—Official journals here concur in declaring that the postponement of recruiting by order of the King is a sure pledge of peace.

MARINE NEWS.

LIVERPOOL, September 16—The Somerset to-day sailed for Baltimore.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LONDON, September 16—Evening.—Consols 94. American securities easier; U. S. bonds 72; Illinois 91; Erie 30¼.

FRANKFORT, September 16—Evening.—U. S. bonds heavy at 75.

LIVERPOOL, September 16.—Evening.—Cotton firmer and higher; sales 12,000. Breadstuffs quiet. Petroleum firmer.

PARIS, Sept. 16.—Bourse heavy; Rentes have declined to 68f. 95c.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Republican Mass Meeting and Barbecue.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

RALEIGH, Sept. 16. — The Republican Mass Meeting and Barbecue, which has been advertised for some time, came off here to-day. The number of blacks present is supposed to be about five thousand, some say more. It is said there were about one hundred white delegates or visitors present. Speeches were made by Gov. Holden, Gov. Hawley, of Connecticut, and others. Gov. Hawley was the only stranger present. The blacks were enthusiastic. James W. Hawley, son of the Governor, in a short speech advised the blacks to go to the polls armed to the teeth. He said he spoke not as an individual, but as a prophet of the doom of the Southern Democracy.

There was a torch-light procession to-night. The crowd was large and the display very fine. Several speeches were made.

The Georgia Legislature.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ATLANTA, Sept. 16.—The Senate has passed the House bill giving State aid to the Georgia Air Line Railroad. Mr. Higbee, Republican, voted in favor of the bill, but doubted the legality of the Assembly, since so many members had been turned out. He said equal rights, civil and political, had a great deal to do with the present cry regarding State credit.

Two Senators were sworn in to fill vacancies occasioned by the expulsion of the two negroes who were declared ineligible.

The House is still engaged in discussing the bill prohibiting negroes from serving on juries.

Freshet in Kentucky.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

LOUISVILLE, September 16.—The rains of the past two weeks have swelled the streams in Kentucky to a great height. The low lands are entirely flooded, submerging the corn crops. This proves a serious blow to a wide extent of country.

ST. LOUIS.

The Masonic Demonstration — Steamboat Excursion—Accident to the Flag Boat.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.—The steamboat excursion and banquet given to-day by the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Missouri to the Grand Encampment of the United States was a very brilliant affair. The steamers Mississippi, Lady Gay and Belle of Alton were engaged for the purpose, and steamed away from the levee at half past one, ascending the river about five miles, when they turned and sailed past the city with flags flying, bands playing and cannons roaring, and proceeded to Jefferson Barracks, some twelve miles below here, where they landed and the whole party went ashore and viewed the officers' quarters, soldiers' barracks and other points of interest. Shortly after leaving the city an elegant banquet was spread on each boat, which was partaken of by everybody on board. There could not have been less than three thousand persons, including ladies, in the entire party, and for gaiety, genuine good feeling and enjoyment, was, perhaps, never surpassed. The Knights of St. Louis acquitted themselves most creditably and received the highest praise and encomiums from all sides. This was the grandest and most successful event of the kind that has ever taken place here and perhaps anywhere else.

While steaming back to the city, and when about three miles from the landing, the Mississippi, the flagship of the squadron, struck a sunken wreck and knocked a hole in her bottom. The pumps were immediately set to work, but the water gaining on them quite rapidly, the boat was run in to the Illinois shore, and the Lady Gay came alongside and took off her passengers and conveyed them to the city. No alarm was caused by the disaster and no accident occurred during the transfer of the passengers.

The Alabama Legislature.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., September 15.—The Legislature met in extra session. Mr. McGraw, Speaker of the House of Representatives, having been appointed Chancellor, resigned his position. Mr. G. F. Harrington, of Mobile, was elected Speaker without opposition.

Gen. Howard is in the city. He was invited to a seat in the House, and was to address the members at 8 o'clock this evening.

Governor Smith sent in a short message. It related almost entirely to the duty of providing a registration law.

The damage to the railroad between Mobile and Montgomery has been repaired and travel is now uninterrupted. Trains go through on regular schedule time.

New Orleans Market.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 16.—Cotton firm; middlings 23c; sales 1,677 bales; receipts, 965 bales. Sterling Exchange 15@16½. New York Sight Exchange ¼a¾ discount. Gold 143¾. Sugar and Molasses nominally unchanged. Flour dull; Superfine, $7,12½ a7,25; treble extra, $8,25a9. Corn dull at $1,05a1,10. Oats dull at 62a63c. Hay $21a 26, closing dull. Bran in better demand at $1,25a1,30. Pork dull at $31. Bacon quiet; shoulders 14c, clear sides 18c. Hams 20a 22c. Lard—20c for tierce and 22c for keg.

The Maine Horse Show.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

AUGUSTA, Sept. 16.—The Maine State Horse Show, which was to commence here to-day, was postponed until to-morrow, on account of the rain. One hundred and five entries have been made for different purses and the collection of horses is the finest ever seen in Maine.

[Before Judge Hampton.]

In the case of Magill vs. McGrew, reported yesterday, the jury have not yet returned a verdict.

In the case of McKee Bros. vs. Shultz & Danner, by consent, defendants confessed judgment in favor of plaintiffs for the sum of $577 10.

The Court requests the attendance of all attorneys having cases on the trial list at nine A. M. to-day, as the whole list will then be called, and cases set down for trial which the attorneys on either side may desire to have tried.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

[Before Judge Sterrett.]

Court met at the usual hour on Wednesday and transacted the following business:

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

In the case of Matthew Keep, constable, indicted for assault and battery, on complaint of Elizabeth Griffiths, the jury found a verdict of guilty. Sentence deferred.

Commonwealth vs. J. H. Sanders; indictment assault and battery. Samuel McKain prosecutor. It appeared that the defendant threw water with a hose on the prosecutor, and also struck him. Verdict, guilty and the defendant sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars.

Com'th vs. Samuel McKain; indictment, assault and battery, on complaint of Lydia Lytle, a married woman. In June last the prosecutrix was residing with her husband in rooms at 237 Federal street, Allegheny, rented from the defendant, who kept a grocery store in the same building. Mrs. Lytle testified that on the 23d of June, between ten and eleven o'clock, while she was in the store, defendant caught hold of her by the arm and made an indecent proposition; that he continued holding her by the arm after she had requested him a third time to release her, when she forced herself from his grasp. Miss Carrie Johnston testified she saw and heard all that transpired; she corroborated Mrs. Lytle's statement. For the defense Mrs. Keating and Mrs. Hazlett, residing in the neighborhood, and customers at the store, testified to having been at Mr. McKain's between ten and eleven o'clock on the day of the alleged assault, for the purpose of getting their weekly supply of butter, and that they did not see Mrs. Lytle there. A lad named Stevenson, employed in the store, testified that he did not see Mrs. Lytle on that day in the store, and that nothing of the kind stated by her had occurred. There was a great deal of testimony in the case, occupying the attention of the Court for the greater portion of the session. Jury out.

LARCENY CASE.

Michael Creighton was placed on trial on a charge of larceny. Henry Lewis testified that while asleep on a chair at a tavern in Mifflin township, a pocket-book containing forty-five dollars was taken from him. The defendant had been stopping at the tavern, and Lewis had paid his lodging. He (defendant) left while Lewis slept, and when the money was missed, suspicion fell upon him as the thief. The case was on trial at adjournment.

EN ROUTE WESTWARD.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 12, 1868.

I arrived at this city by river yesterday, and concluded to rest till Monday before proceeding further west. It is a little more than a year since I was last here, but everything looks as familiar as if it were only a week. People complain of the dullness of business; yet the work of building and extending, of adding house to house, block to block, street to street, it is said, was never progressing faster than at present. The room in which to expand is practically unlimited.

The most interesting thing here just now in the way of enterprise is the great bridge over the Mississippi river directly opposite the heart of the city. This bridge will cross the channel of the river on three spans—one of 515 feet, and two of 497 feet each, making in all 1,509 feet. It will surprise many to learn that this great river can be spanned by a bridge so short as this, but it is even so. Indeed it is less than half the width of the Upper Mississippi at Quincy, 150 miles above the mouth of the Missouri. There are few places where it is so narrow as here. But of course the depth and power of the current is correspondingly increased; and this it is that renders the construction of a bridge at this point difficult and expensive.

The two piers in the channel of the river are to be 145 and 147 feet high respectively from the rock foundation. This rock is covered with a heavy layer of sand, which must be removed by the use of caissons and coffer clams. The bridge is to be so high as to admit of the passage of steamers beneath it, and is to have an upper and lower roadway—the upper, which is to be used as an ordinary carriage and foot way, is to be 34 feet wide beneath the foot walks. The latter are to be each eight feet wide, making the bridge 50 feet wide between the railways—equal to an ordinary street. Eighteen feet below this carriage way there is to be a double track railway, each track to pass through arched openings in the abutments and piers.

On the east or Illinois side these tracks will curve northward and southward over arched ways of the requisite elevation, descending to the level of the present roads on that side of the river, at the rate of one foot in a hundred. The ordinary roadway will descend to the level of the American Bottom between these curved railroad tracks at the rate of four feet to one hundred.

On the west, or city side, the bridge is to be carried over streets and blocks, on arches and truss bridges to the crossing of Third street and Washington avenue. At that point it is to enter a tunnel under Washington avenue, and follow that street to Ninth, where it bears off in a southwestwardly direction to a point near Clark avenue, where the road emerges from its subterranean course of 4,800 feet under the centre of the densest portion of the city. This brings it to the level of the existing railroads running westward and southward, and to within three squares of them.

This is probably the most gigantic enterprise of the kind ever undertaken. The cost is estimated at $4,496,953. The superstructure of the bridge is to be constructed in part of iron and in part of cast steel. I cannot pretend to give a statement of the plan further than to say that the roadways are to be sustained by three stupendous arches. The suspension principle does not enter into it, although the crown of the arches reach to the upper roadway. This bridge will be of vast importance, not to this city only, but to the entire country. The stock created is likely to pay a good per centage.

Our Republican friends here are in fine spirits, and confident of carrying the State. The first Congressional district (General Pile's) is warmly contested, and by some considered doubtful; but others think there is no danger of Pile's defeat. Both sides are doing all that men can do; and so well has General Pile borne himself in the present Congress that he is stronger with loyal men at present than he was in 1866. The Democracy of Missouri, be it remembered, are not Copperheads, as with us, but downright rebels, many of whom fought against the country. The Constitution of the State excludes all such from the right of suffrage; but in many of the districts the registry laws are loosely administered. Still I think you may set Missouri down as safe for Grant by a handsome majority, especially if we Pennsylvanians do our duty in October. C.

The Reign of Terror in Arkansas.

A letter from Arkansas, written by a member of Congress from that State, contains a startling picture of the situation there. The writer says: "An alarming state of affairs exists here in Arkansas that necessitates the assembling of Congress on the day designated. A reign of terror exists in many parts of the State. County officers are being driven from their homes. Courts, while dispensing justice, are dispersed by armed men, judges are forced to take refuge in the woods to save their lives, and Senators and other influential men in various parts of the State have been assassinated in the highways and byways, while in some counties an open state of insurrection exists. Congress never made a greater blunder than in adjourning without placing in our hands the means of protecting ourselves." The Little Rock Republican of the 4th inst. announces that an insurrection exists in Craighead county much more formidable in character than that which lately existed in Conway county. The Republican declares it to be the first outcropping of a formidable movement in behalf of the new rebellion.

THE Queen Dowager of Prussia is in such feeble health that her only food for months past has been milk and light bread. She is paralyzed, and cannot move without assistance. Nevertheless, she takes an active part in political intrigues, and has recently achieved quite a triumph in getting her enemy, General Vogel von Falckenstein, superseded, and her favorite, the reactionary General Manteuffel, appointed in his stead, commander-in-chief of the first (East Prussian) army. This General Manteuffel is the same man of whom Bismark said, during the war of 1866: "He exercises such a baneful influence over the King that I will rather intrust him with the command of the western army, unable as he is to lead it, than have him here at the headquarters of the eastern army." Manteuffel, as well as the Queen Dowager, are secret friends of Austria, and, if they could, they would overthrow Bismark and have a Prussian statesman of the old absolutist school appointed Prime Minister.

SONGS OF VICTORY.

PENNSYLVANIA TO MAINE.

The Keystone thanks
The m n o Maine,
And through her ranks
On ea o again
Their victory rings—
The rebel fears,
The patri t heers,
The glorious strain.

Vermont s oke first and well,
And you responded.
And h arts to at the bbed and fell,
No mor despond d—
And now old Penn's alive—
Her ir m n cheer,
While rebels fear,
Your pond rous shell.

And soon from s a to sea
The echoing cry
Caught by th millions free,
Will thrill the sky.
And every State will rouse,
As tyr nt fear,
And g o men cheer,
Perfected Liberty.

Oh, had you failed,
Undaunted Maine,
Slout h rts had q ailed,
And once again
The r lor band would rise:
But now our f ars
Are lost in cheers,
For ye are stalwart men. X. X.

MAINE.

"Have you heard the news from Maine?"
h great northa tern State
Wh ch o ns in o Yankee land
A m ghty grand gate,
Th r freeson hoped to rule
And ther h w ches in pain:
For h v've turned the tid to he other side:
Hurrah for the news from Main !

"Have you heard the news from Maine?"
'Tis a question old you know:
Thy s ct ere the boys were born,
Some hir y years ago
In mean hat men had heard
Of overwhelmi g gain;
And o me and you it s ill is true:
We have heard the news from Maine!

"Have you heard the news from Maine?
Do y u he r the shouts afar?"
We hav g ined the second victory
In si very's second war,
And we shall hear those shouts
Again nd ye again,
Cheer voice and hand thro' all the land:
We have eard the news from Maine.

"Hav you heard the news from Maine?"
In the main we're always right,
And wha ever is she still remains,
In ever y con ght.
Pass, pass the wor around!
And h nder out the strain!
We've won at a ound he second round!
Hurrah for the news from Maine! G. G. L.

—England is only four hundred and twenty-six miles long.

—Minnie Hauck has been quite respectably received in London.

—The Austrian Crown Prince is learning the trade of a locksmith.

—There are five hundred safes in the new Park Bank in New York.

—Some one in Brooklyn has written an American opera called Mootla.

—Edwin Forrest is to act five nights at Troy and only get $2,500 for it.

—A woman in Brooklyn was recently frightened to death by some burglars.

—The Princess Metternich is said to don masculine attire and ride velocipedes.

—Wagner is engaged to write an opera expressly for the Theatre Lyrique in Paris.

—Some hopeful Italians think that after the present eruption Vesuvius will become extinct.

—The Hon. John, of prize ring fame, is finding much difficulty in obtaining a renomination to Congress.

—Cora Pearl is coming to America. This is almost too much; we suppose Skittles and Finette will soon follow.

—Geo. Peabody is in Ireland, probably looking out for good waters to cast another million or two of bread onto.

—During the last twenty-five years the Odd Fellows have educated forty-five thousand children in this country.

—A man in Norfolk is reported to have found $350,000 in an old trunk. Such a trunk is better than Liebler's.

—A few months more will pass and then King Ludwig, of Bavaria, is to become a Benedict and marry the Czar's daughter.

—Marshall Canrobert is writing a reply to Kinglake's History of the Crimean War, and Madame Canrobert is translating it into English.

—Wagner doesn't want American managers to cut his new opera without consulting him, and he has distributed a circular to that effect.

—Secretary W. H. Seward's neighbors say that that "ancient worthy" has repeatedly, in private, declared himself for Grant and Colfax.

—December is the month that Miss Braddon is coming here to America. By a proper exercise of patience Americans can control themselves until then.

—A special train on the Chicago & Green Bay Railway, last Saturday, ran 91 miles in ninety-five minutes, the last 51 miles being done in forty-nine minutes.

—Cardinal Bonaparte is said to be very seriously ill, and his disease is supposed to be the same as that of which Napoleon the Great died, i. e. cancer in the stomach.

—Young Tom Hood is vigorously fighting the railway monopolies of England. St. George fought the dragon successfully, but Tom Hood is no saint unfortunately.

—Mrs. Stanton, the Revolutionary woman, would vote for Seymour and Blair if she had a chance; she thinks Seymour simple, unostentatious and strictly temperate.

—Miss Evans promises another book this winter. We have had from Beulah to St. Elmo, and we suppose that the fair authoress has had time to study up another letter in the encyclopedia.

—Rumor says the London Telegraph is subsidized by Louis Napoleon, and as that paper praises that monarch to the very echo, and does not deny the subsidy insinuation, the rumor may be true.

—The Siamese twins are going to Paris this week, says a special telegram. Our special neglected to state whether they both go in the same steamer or not, which is a strange oversight from so responsible a person.

—There really seems to be no such thing as getting rid of that unpleasantly popular fellow Champagne Charlie. We cannot begin to say how many times or on how many instruments of torture he has been executed. Thousands of beginners have murdered him, and yet he continues to drag out a miserable existence.

—Count von Schack, a Prussian artillery lieutenant, and considered the best swimmer in the North German army, made a bet the other day to the effect that he would swim across the Spree, lying on his back and bearing on his breast a board, with two full bottles of wine, six eggs in a dish, and four tumblers. If one of these articles should fall from the board, he would lose the bet. He won it.

—Bees, in swarming, have been known to alight upon persons and animals, stinging them severely, and in some instances causing death. The American Bee Journal, in referring to an instance of the kind, where a swarm of bees settled upon the head of a horse standing in front of a church, and the owner, who went to its assistance, was stung senseless, says that all the difficulty could have been obviated by the use of cold water sprinkled upon them.

—An American writer in the German Kirchenblatt says that if Henry Ward Beecher could speak the German language, and be prevailed upon to preach for a year in one of the capitals of Germany, he would succeed in stemming the tide of infidelity in the old country. He says it is but the plain, unvarnished truth when he asserts that there is on the whole continent no pulpit orator that could be compared with him. Believing this assertion to be true, is it not Mr. Beecher's duty to begin the study of the German language at once?

—M. Cremieux, the celebrated Jewish advocate in Paris, says he deplores the efforts made by certain short-sighted Jews in the United States to array the American Israelites as a party against one of the Presidential candidates, as criminal folly, and assures the editor of the Avenir National, who expressed his astonishment at the course of the American Israelites, if their rumored hostility to Gen. Grant were true, but that his advices from America seemed to indicate the groundlessness of these reports.

—In February, 1866, the steamer W. R. Carter exploded on the Mississippi river, near Vicksburg, and afterwards took fire and was partially burned, when it sunk. On board was an iron safe belonging to the Adams Express Company, containing $230,000 in National currency. Owing to the depth of water (some 70 feet) in which the wreck sunk, and the deposit of mud laid on it by the Father of Waters, several attempts to recover it were in vain, but at length success has crowned the efforts of the searchers, and the money is now in charge of the Company's agent at Vicksburg.

—"At Clara Mundt's," says the Berlin correspondent of the Baltic Gazette, "I met yesterday Berthold Auerbach. I was much surprised at his appearance. You would take him for a dry old lawyer much sooner than the author of so many heart-stirring novels. He is a clever chess-player, and it is amusing to hear him curse himself in a humorous way when he is at a loss to know what move to make. He does not look quite as old as he is, and I have been told that there is still an immense amount of work in him, which will be good news to his innumerable friends and admirers."

—A picture is creating some mirth in Iowa political circles. The centre figure is the great American Tanner, U. S. G., hearty, stout, and strong on his legs, with his sleeves rolled up and apron on, he looks every inch a man. On his left are Lee, Buckner and Johnson, the sorriest looking set of tanned rebels that ever confronted the general public. Above their heads is a card signed by them and "others of the late Confederate army," saying: "This is to certify that we have had our hides tanned by U. S. Grant, and that the work was by him thoroughly done." On his right the Great Sachem of Tammany presents Seymour and Blair in characteristic attitude, and says, "Here General, is a couple of more hides to be tanned; when will they be done?" The Tanner responds, as he gives a puff to his cigar: "Well I'll finish them off early in November." Altogether, the representation is a capital one.

Bismarck.

A Berlin correspondent of the London News, writing under date of August 26, says:

Count Bismarck has met with an accident which might have had serious consequences. While riding on his estate of Varzine, accompanied by two friends, his horse stepped with his fore feet into a hole, turned a complete somersault, and, precipitating the Count, fell with his whole weight upon him. Miraculously enough, he was not crushed to death, but escaped with a few bruises. Though speechless for a few moments, and in a state of great nervous excitement for the next twenty-four hours, he has now so far recovered the effects of his fall that he finds himself in his usual state of health. It is hoped that, with his well-known strength of constitution, the nervous disorder under which he has been suffering of late, will not be brought on again by the accident.

Marriage of Speaker Colfax.

A dispatch dated Chicago, September 14th, says: The intelligence will be received with great pleasure by the whole people of the United States that Hon. Schuyler Colfax, our warm-hearted, genial and talented candidate for Vice President, is about to lead to the hymenial altar one of Ohio's most lovely and accomplished daughters, Miss Nellie M. Wade, of Andover, Ohio, niece of Hon. B. F. Wade. She accompanied the Colfax party to the Rocky Mountains. This matrimonial contract has been entered into after a mutual acquaintance of two years, and is highly gratifying to all parties concerned. The nuptials will be celebrated after a brief period.

An old lady on a steamboat observed two men pumping up water to wash the deck, and the Captain being near, accosted him as follows:

"Well, Captain, got a well aboard, eh?"

"Yes, ma'am, always carry one," said the polite Captain.

"Well, that's clever. I always disliked this nasty river water, especially in dog days."

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, September 16, 1868.

CATTLE.

Since our last the Cattle market has been dull and rather inactive, although there has been a full complement in the pens. Eastern buyers seemed afraid to purchase, except at low rates, as many of them lost heavily on their last week's purchases. There were some very fair cattle offering, but on account of the low offers, holders expected to ship them East on their own account. The medium and lower grades were in moderate request, but at low figures. The sales for the week ending September 10th, were 1,100 head at $4,25@7,87, and for this week 1,329 head, at a range of $5@7,25 per hundred. A few bulls sold at $3,25@3,30 per hundred. The following sales are reported:

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. to J. Rambo 20 head 19,025, at $6,25; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. to R. Mayne, 21 b, 16,000 at 3,25; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. to G. Marks, 54 58,050 at 6,25; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. to J. Landis, 21 22,575 at 6,00; Holmes, Lafferty & Co, to S. Miller, 33 39,275 at $33 off 17,25; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. to J. SHEEP AND LAMBS.

During the past week the market has had a large number of Sheep and Lambs on sale, but they were mostly of a poor character, and many of them could hardly be called "scallawags" of the first order. This last was very dull and nominal in price, whilst anything approaching a first class article sold ready at fine prices.

The sales for the week were 7,154 head at from $2,87a4,50 per hundred. The sales for the week ending Wednesday, September 9th, were 8,386 head.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The anticipated decline in prices of Printed Calicoes has just taken place. Most makes are off ½c per yard. We quote Sprague at 13; Pacific 13; Oriental, Manchester American, Lancaster and Amoskeag 12½; Stuarts 11½; Lowell 11; Wamsutta 9½; Reynolds 10, and Columbian Prints 8. Market for unbleached and bleached Muslins is also depressed, and although many classes of goods are selling very low, still buyers are timid purchasers. Notwithstanding the decline in Cottons, the market closes less active. Woolens continue in good request at steady prices.

Philadelphia Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—Petroleum dull; crude 20c; refined 29c. Flour declined 25c; extras $8a8,75; northwestern extra family $9a10,50; Pennsylvania and Ohio do., $10 a12. Wheat dull at $2,20a2,25; amber $2,35. Rye $1,56a1,60 for Penna. and western. Corn dull and drooping; yellow $1,30; mixed western $1,27a1,28. Oats in fair demand; Penna. and Ohio 74a77c. Clover seed $8a9. Flax $2,90. Groceries and provisions unchanged.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point with eight feet in the channel by the Monongahela marks. The weather continues very changeable; early in the morning it was warm, and considerable rain fell, while later in the day the wind shifted, and it become quite cool, rendering overcoats and fires necessary.

There has been no arrivals since the date of our last report. The R. C. Gray, from Cincinnati was due last night and will doubtless be found in port this morning.

The Grey Eagle for Parkersbug and New State for Wheeling departed, on time, with fair trips.

The J. N. McCullough cleared for Cincinnati last evening, with an excellent freight list. Capt. Dan Moore, in command, and Mr. A. C. M'Connell in the office.

The Messenger Capt. Dean, is filling up steadily for St. Louis and will be the first packet out.

Capt. Hugh Campbell announces the Mary Davage and barges for St. Louis, forthwith.

Business was fairly active at the landing yesterday, as much so as could be expected under existing circumstances. It is a little early yet for the regular fall business, and besides the rise was not expected.

The towboat Mary Alice, which we announced for New Orleans on Tuesday, did not get away, owing to the insufficient stage of water. The Simpson Horner and Stella will go through all right. The towboats Grand Lake; Collier, Mary Alice, and Boaz, are in readiness to take tows of coal, and as soon as the water will permit, they will depart for New Orleans. The Brilliant, with seven barges, and seventy thousand bushels of coal departed yesterday for Louisville.

—The Camelia, en route from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, passed Evansville on Monday.

—The Wild Duck engaged on Monday at Cincinnati to take troops to St. Louis at $4 for each of the men, and $3 for horses.

—The N. W. Union Packet Company are contracting to carry wheat in bulk to New York via St. Louis and New Orleans. One of their boats was to tow on Saturday one of the M. V. Transportation Co,'s barges.

—A recent English improvement in safety valves not only allows the escape of steam when the limit of pressure is reached, but when the water in the boiler gets too low it opens a valve and floods the fires with water.

—Late advices state that all the warehouses on the Upper Mississippi are overflowing with grain, the owners begging for barges to move the crops to market. It will be impossible to ship it at all this fall, and will require at least three months of next season to forward the crops.

—The streets and cellars of Zanesville, Ohio, were inundated by the rain, last Saturday morning. Three inches of water fell during three hours. There is a freshet in the Muskingum. On Thursday the streets of Nashville were rendered impassable by the flooding rain. The Cumberland is rising again and in fine navigable condition to points above Nashville. Arkansas river rose 30 inches at Little Rock last Wednesday night, with a three foot rise at Fort Smith on the day previous.

—The following steamers return Internal Revenue receipts from passengers at Cincinnati for the month of August, viz: Minneola, $303; Nightingale, $735; Abeona, $444; Shamrock, $630; Golden Era, $643; Tahlequah, $714; Lawrence, $513; St. James, $1,935; General Buell, $3,298; Mary Ament, $522; America, $5,190; Cheyenne, $1,905; Lady Grace, $623; C. T. Dumont, $1,119; Mary Erwin, $1,069; United States, $4,971; Bostona, $3,278; Major Anderson, $3,398; Telegraph, $2,453; Samuel J. Hale, $443.

—The Cincinnati Commercial, of Wednesday, says: The levee presented a lively appearance yesterday, in the way of receiving and discharging cargoes. The New York will get off for Pittsburgh today, with a fair trip, while Capt. Ebert will start up with the Yorktown from the Marine Ways, where she has been laid up for some time. She will take people, but goes out pretty light, with the hope of picking up a trip along the way. Captain Conway has already engaged 200 tuns for the Silver Cloud, and will go out fully laden, including way engagements.

We clip the following from the same paper: Andy Poe, sixteen years old, a son of Capt. Poe, of the America, has just completed a landscape in oil of the Grand Tower on the Upper Mississippi. It is a highly creditable work of art for one so young. He is a natural artist, and bound to make his mark.

—In February, 1866, the steamer W. B. Carter, of the Atlantic & Mississippi Steamship Line, exploded, with fearful loss of life and treasure, about twenty miles above Vicksburg, on the Mississippi river. After the explosion the vessel took fire and the upper works were partially burned, after which the hull swung round to the Arkansas shore and sunk in the water seventy feet deep. On the vessel, in charge of the messenger, Mr. Gray, who was lost, was a safe of the Adams Express Company, containing $230,000 in National currency. Owing to the great depth of water and the usual deposit of mud, under which the Father of Waters soon laid the wreck, the many attempts made by the company heretofore to recover the money, have been in vain. But the company have at last the satisfaction of recovering the safe and contents, partially injured, of course, by their long submergence under the waters and mud of the Mississippi. The money, of which $200,000 belongs to the United States Treasury, and the remainder to parties in Memphis, was taken from the wreck a few days since by the New Orleans Wrecking Company, and is in charge of the agent of the company at Vicksburg.

—The Memphis Bulletin says: A difficulty is arising about the wharfage here, and Memphis is receiving numerous and and extensive back-handed compliments from the river people. The grounds for this can be understood when we state that the Legal Tender, on her way up the river last trip, paid twelve dollars wharfage. Yesterday, on her way down, her wharfage was sixty-four dollars, under the new rate of wharfage. There is a talk of boats avoiding Memphis like a pest; of sending any unlucky passengers who may be bound for so God-forsaken a spot, ashore in a yawl. Whether all this is calculated to advance the business fame and commercial profits of Memphis, perhaps may be worth consideration. If any one would offer a prize for an essay upon the cause of unopened stores and unoccupied houses, it is not impossible but that something about the stoppage of education in public schools, and clogging trade by the shackels of heavy charges would appear in the composition. Now, we have increased the rates on transient steamboats five times, it may, perhaps, be necessary to trouble the Legislature further on the subject of taxation on business sales.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 144¾.

ISRAELITES throughout the world celebrate this day as the incoming of the year 5629 A. M., and the New Year will be marked by all the ceremonies of a solemn festival among that people.

CONGRESS will re-assemble on the 21st, next Monday, but no Legislative business is likely to be transacted. The attendance of a quorum in each House will be for the purpose of ordering another recess.

HON. J. G. BLAINE, Chairman of the Republican Committee of Maine, sent last Monday night the following dispatch to Gen. GRANT at Galena:

"Maine stands by you in peace as she stood by you in war. She gives Chamberlain 20,000 majority to-day, and will give you 30,000 in November."

UNDER Democratic laws ten years ago, the laboring man worked twelve hours per day for not over seventy-five cents. Now he works ten hours per day or less, and is paid one dollar and a half. And, both then and now, he never sees the Federal taxgatherers, or hears of them except in Democratic speeches.

THE National Banks in Pennsylvania paid last year a State tax of 2.32 per cent., and a Federal tax of 2.29 per cent., in all a tax of 4.61 per cent. on their entire capital. With the new Democratic doctrine of equality in taxation, this "oppressive burthen" upon the banks would be largely reduced, a part of it being shifted over on to farmers' and workingmens' homes.

THE Democratic journals throughout the country, now so earnestly engaged in damning without mercy the "outrageous order issued by the Radical Mayor of Pittsburgh," providing for the arrest of ladies found on the streets after certain hours of night without male companions, show good judgment; but would it not be well to enforce on their editors that our city is now under a Democratic administration? The order was issued not by a Radical Republican Mayor, but by a full fledged Democrat.

THE Ohio delegation in the present Congress consists of sixteen Republicans and three Democrats, the latter being CARY, MUNGEN and VAN TRUMP. Our friends in that State are confident that CARY will be beaten by STEVENSON this year, and that the Democracy will have but two members from Ohio in the XLIst Congress, representing the 5th and 12th districts, as now. Our majorities in the 2d, 3d, 6th, 8th, 9th, 10th and 16th districts may not be large, but will be sufficient. In other districts which we now hold, our candidates will have majorities ranging from 2,000 to 10,000 each. The two Democratic districts are, we fear, hopeless of reclamation. The only really doubtful district in the State is the 13th, which has recently been contested, Mr. DELANO finally ousting Cumberland Gap MORGAN from the seat. The latter is again a candidate, but, we think and hope, will be beaten by COOPER, the Republican competitor, who combines every element of popularity in his favor. Such is our estimate of the result among the Buckeyes; as for betting, that had better be left until after the polls close.

THE LIGHT IN THE EAST.

The aggregate vote of Maine last Monday is now reported at 133,000, with a Republican majority of 23,000, which the final returns are more likely to increase than diminish. The vote thus divides upon 78,000 Republican and 55,000 Democratic, and its total is some 14,000 more than ever before cast in the State. This conclusively proves than an extraordinary effort has been made by the opposition, in the hope of reducing our majority, and securing a favorable reaction in popular sentiment at the elections in October, in Central and Western States. Their tactics have been unsuccessful, thanks to the fidelity with which the people of Maine have maintained their attachment to the cause of the Union, and to their intelligent comprehension of the one great sole issue in the canvass, the preservation of our Representative Institutions, or the substitution in their stead of a Presidential Dictatorship. As Maine has spoken, so the Republic will declare.

RECONSTRUCTION—WHAT IS IT?

Upon the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Articles of Amendment to the Constitution, Reconstruction and all the laws passed by Congress to carry it into effect are based. What are they? The Thirteenth says that "neither Slavery nor involuntary servitude except as a punishment for crimes, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction." Section first of the Fourteenth "guarantees the citizenship and equality before the law, of every person." Section second, "Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States, representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crimes, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State."

Reconstruction is nothing more or nothing less than the foregoing. Wherein is it wrong or unjust? Let the following figures, compiled from official sources, speak for themselves:

States.	Population.	White.	Rep. Population.	No. Reps.
Alabama	964,201	526,271	790,169	6
Arkansas ...	435,450	324,143	391,004	3
Florida.....	144,424	77,747	115,726	1
Georgia.....	1,057,286	591,550	872,406	7
Louisiana...	708,002	357,456	575,311	5
Missis ippi.	791,305	353,989	616,632	5
N. Carolina.	992,622	629,942	860,197	7
S. Carolina.	703,708	291,300	542,745	4
Texas	604,215	420,891	531,188	4
Virginia	1,219,630	691,728	1,029,689	8
Total.....	7,716,843	4,265,017	6,325,087	50

States.	Population.	Rep. Population.	No. Reps.
California.....	362,197		3
Illinois	1,704,291	1,711,951	14
Indiana.....	1,338,710	1,350,428	11
Iowa	673,779	674,913	6
Maine	626,947	628,279	5
Michigan.....	736,142	749,113	6
New Jersey.....	646,999	672,027	5
Total.....	6,084,678	6,148,907	50

Here, first stated, are ten States with a white population of 4,265,017 entitled to a representation in Congress of fifty members in the House and twenty members in the Senate, total seventy, while in the second there are seven States with a white population of 6,084,678 all of which is required to secure a like number of (fifty) representatives in the House and only fourteen in the Senate, total sixty-four. Is it "flagrant usurpation of power" to demand equality for the whites before the law as well as in the forum.

	Population.	Rep. Pop.	No. Rep.
Pennsylvania.....	2,849,259	2,906,215	24
Massachusetts.....	1,221,432	1,231,066	10
Rhode Island.....	170,649	174,620	2
	4,241,340	4,311,901	36

The white population in these three States is but 23,677 less than the foregoing ten, yet they have only a representation of thirty-six in the House and six in the Senate, total forty-two! Again, is it "unqualified despotism" to demand that inequalities shall cease.

	Population.	Rep. Pop.	No. Rep.
New York.....	3,831,500	3,880,725	31
Ohio	2,102,808	2,339,511	19
	6,134,117	6,220,236	50

Here we have two States with a white population of 1,896,300 more than States enumerated, but they are only entitled to fifty members in the House and four in the Senate, total fifty-four. What matchless oppression and tyranny?

So much for population; it speaks for it's self. But to elucidate the matter further look at the number of votes cast in the respective States (South Carolina estimated,) in the year 1860:

Alabama	90,357	California.....	118,840
Arkansas.....	59,326	Illinois.....	339,693
Florida.....	14,347	Indiana	272,143
Georgia.	106,365	Iowa	128,331
Loui iana.....	50,510	Maine.....	122,567
Miss'sippi.....	69,129	Michigan.....	155,027
North Carolina...	96,221	New Jersey.....	121,125
South Carol na..	40,500
Texas	62,667		1,257,726
Virginia.....	122,274
	711 835
Pennsylvania....	492,642	New York.....	675,115
Massachusetts...	169,534	Ohio	430,826
Rhode Island....	22,231
	685,407		1 105,941

These figures show in the first comparison that 711,835 votes in ten States elect 50 members of the House and cast 70 votes in the electoral college, while 1,257,726 votes in seven States elect a like number and yet have only 64 votes in the electoral college. n Ithe second instance that nearly an equal population and vote in three States elect 36 members to the House and cast only 42 votes in the electoral college, while the ten poll 70. In the last case two States with 1,105,9S1 votes elect 50 members to the House and yet can poll but 54 votes in the college for President.

The facts demonstratad by these figures cannot be gainsayed; they show how and in what manner, and for what purpose the reconstruction acts are "usurpatory and unconstitutional, revolutionary, null and void," and that notwithstanding the "oppression and tyranny" and "unqualified despotism" as well as "flagrant usurpation of power." We demand equality for the free whites of the North before the law as well as in the council chambers of the nation.

A SLANDER NAILED.

The Boston Pilot, the influential organ of Irish Catholicism in New England, thus nails the Democratic slander, which the Pittsburgh Post has so often repeated, against SCHUYLER COLFAX as formerly a Know-Nothing. The Pilot says:

"A correspondent of ours at South Bend, Indiana, Thomas McElrath, who is not a politician, says that the charge advanced against Schuyler Colfax of having been sworn into a Know-Nothing organization in 1854, is not true. He further encloses to us an extract from a speech of Mr. Colfax, at South Bend, July 30, 1868, relative to this very charge, to which the Speaker responds thus: 'You know it is a falsehood; you know that never in my public life, from the commencement to the close, in any year, month or day, have I held any other doctrines than that principles and character, not birth-place and creed, were the truest test for official promotion. Men who may resort to forgery may sign my name with their felonious fingers, for a forgery is felony. You here know that there has not been an election for the past twelve years that I have not gone to the polls, not with a closed ballot, but an open one, and voted for men of foreign birth, and who worshipped at a different altar from what I did myself. Here is the only place where I will answer that calumny: let it be buried in the tomb, where are buried calumnies and foggeries like it, in the graves of the past.'"

We must wait a long time before BLAIR could be as handsomely and completely vindicated from the same accusation. His Know-Nothing oath, word by word as subscribed by him at St. Louis in 1854, was printed by us a few days since, and the record stands uncontradicted.

THE Democracy of Indiana, despairing of success in the inauguration of Southern anarchy, have initiated a small rebellion in their own ranks. The Chairman of their State Committee having been removed from that post, because he was peculiarly a friend of Mr. PENDLETON, and another Chairman, a HENDRICKS man, appointed, the former, who also edits an influential journal, has taken out of his paper the Democratic State ticket and opened a bitter campaign against the dominant faction. We perceive, also, that Dr. W. S. PIERCE, a prominent Democratic leader for fifteen years past, is very bitter against SEYMOUR and BLAIR and goes strong for GRANT and Peace. The Indiana Democracy plainly see the signs upon the wall.

THE GRANT HUSSARS, an organization of mounted men, and we believe the first of the character organized in this campaign anywhere, made their first parade last evening and attracted much attention. They fired a salute in honor of the Maine victory on the Monongahela wharf, the guns having been obtained from the Arsenal by order of the Secretary of War, issued at the request of Messrs. F. B. PENNIMAN and Col. JOSEPH M. KNAP. For this favor the Republicans of Allegheny county are again placed under obligations to the War Department. The Hussars propose turning out one thousand strong on the occasion of the grand mass Convention on the 24th inst.

THE TRUTH—IN BLACK AND WHITE.

EDS. GAZETTE: Mr. Jerry Black, as presiding officer of a Democratic meeting in York, Pa., amongst other charges against the Republican party, made use of the following language:

"Before the war our current expenses were less than seventy-five millions; now they are nearly four hundred millions, besides the interest on the national debt and without counting what is stolen in transitu."

From June 1, 1865, to June 1, 1868, the whole amount of money collected from all sources is twelve hundred and eighty-seven millions, twelve thousand three hundred and thirty-three dollars and forty-four cents, as per Official Records at Washington.....	$1,287,012,333 44
From which deduct, omitting fractions:
1. Interest paid on debt	420,000,000
2. For back pay, bounties, pensions and prize money in army and navy.	140,000,000
3. New bounties to soldiers.....	40,000,000
4. To States for war expenses.....	10,000,000
5. Property lost in war.....	11,000,000
6. Paid on principal of debt.....	200,000,000
7. In Treasury.....	100,000,000
Upwards of.....	$906,000,000
Which deducted shows a balance of	$381,012,333 44

This divided into three years makes an expenditure of ninety-seven millions a year.

This sum covered expenses of civil list, Interior, Navy, War, Engineer Bureau, Rivers and Harbors, Freedmen's Bureau, sustenance of Indians, National Cemetery and other extraordinary items growing out of the war.

Now was Judge Black ignorant of what he said, or, having constant recourse to the records at Washington, did he assert this flagrant falsehood to the people of York, knowing it to be false? Let him take either horn of the dilemma and he proves himself unworthy of public confidence.

JUSTICE.

AN indignant Irishman of Cleveland, Mr. DAVID BARRY, publishes a card in the Leader, of which we annex the closing parapraph:

"But drunk or sober, joking or in earnest, Mr. Frank Blair will find out to his cost that the St. Louis "Finnegan" speech will prove the sorest thorn in his side when the final returns come to be footed up. As an Irishman I here declare that I would as soon vote for that arch-traitor Jeff. Davis, or Benjamin Disraeli of England, as for a man who could so heartlessly trifle with the most cherished feelings of our race; and gentlemen, I will go still further, and say that the Irishman who can tamely swallow down such an insult to his country and her heroic efforts to be free, without resenting it at the ballot-box next November, is destitute of all public spirit, dead to the claims and sufferings of his motherland, and is anything but an honor to that proud, defiant, sensitive old race whence he sprung."

THE State Guard puts the recent patriotic action of Gen. J. B. SWEITZER in a very forcible and just light, as follows:

We doubt if any political campaign ever exhibited a grander spectacle than that presented in the attitude of this bold and truthful soldier. He has carefully considered the situation. He has put into one side of the scales his Democracy and in the other his country, and finds that the latter is worth the most, and therefore does not hesitate to renounce the former. He has tested, in the most thorough manner, the honesty of the leaders of the Democratic party and says that they are not true to the peace of the country, and therefore he at once repudiates them to espouse the cause of the Republican candidates whom he knows to be faithful in all things relating to national peace, honor and prosperity. After Gen. Sweitzer's declaration in favor of General Grant, no soldier with the self-respect of a man can vote for Horatio Seymour.

REPUBLICAN MASS MEETINGS.

We continue our announcements as follows:

FRIDAY, Sept. 25th.—Butler. Governor Curtin, Messrs. Phelps, Minor and Penniman. At Mount Pleasant, Gov. Pollock and Col. McClure. At Greenville, Hon. John Allison and T. J. Bigham. At Sharon, Capt. F. Schluembach (German.)

SATURDAY, Sept. 26th. — Kittanning. Gov. Curtin, Messrs. Penniman and Minor. At Altoona, Messrs. McClure, Fisher and Owen. At Emlenton, (Venango) Messrs. S. A. Purviance and B. F. Lucas. At New Castle, Capt. F. Schluembach, (German,)

Monday, Sept. 28.—At Elderton, (Armstong,) Gov. Curtin and S. S. Minor. At Freeport, Messrs. Purviance, Penniman and Lucas. At Pittsburgh, Capt. F. Schluembach (German.)

An Irishman's View of the Bond Question.

The Decatur (Illinois) Gazette reports the following conversation, that occurred between a prominent Democrat and an Irishman of that city, recently. For convenience it designates the persons as Jack and Pat.

Jack: How do you like the Democratic platform?

Pat: I can't understand it; would you be after explaining it to me—all about the bond question?

Jack: Oh, yes, with pleasure. You see the rich men own all the bonds, and the poor men have to pay for the bonds.

Pat: The devil, ye say; is that the way?

Jack: Yes; and now the Democratic party propose to pay off the bonds with greenbacks, and thus everybody will be treated equally.

Pat: Is that our platform?

Jack: Not in so many words—but that is what it means; and now, Pat, I want you to do all you can for our party—bring out the boys to all the meetings, and—

Pat: Hould on, Jack; will yer paying the bonds off in greenbacks make the poor man as rich as the bondholder?

Jack: Not exactly; the bondholder will have his greenbacks where ye can tax them.

Pat: Then there will be all greenbacks and money will be plenty, and we'll git gould for our greenbacks, if we elect Seymour?

Jack: Not exactly; there is not gold enough in the country.

Pat: Thin we are not to have gould at all. How in the divil are ye goin' to pay off the greenbacks?

Jack: A part of it will be paid off by taxation, the money we take from the people for revenue and stamps, &c., and as the greenbacks get worn by constant handling we will print new ones.

Pat: I see; you propose to take the debt now carried by the rich bondholders and divide it among the people, rich and poor alike, by forcing the bondholder to spend his money for property.

Jack: Exactly. You are learning fast, and you see—

Pat: Hould on—an idee strikes me. If the government debt is all in greenbacks, and thim in circulation, how many cords of 'em will it take to buy a cord of wood?

Jack: I cannot exactly say what they would be worth—that will regulate itself. But, by the by, Pat, could you pay me that little note you owe me? It was due yesterday, and I need the money very much.

"Pat: Yes; I know the note is due, and I'll pay you according to the dimmecratic platiorm.

"Jack: What do you mean?

"Pat: I mane I'll give you a fresh note for the one ye have.

"Jack: There's nothing about giving fresh notes in the Democratic platform.

"Pat: Yis, ye said we pay the bonds in greenbacks, and both of them are promises to pay of the same Government, Ye's give one promise to pay for another one, and I'll give you a fresh promise to pay for the one ye have now. The note you have now says tin per cint. interest; the new one will say without interest, and no time set for its payment.

"Jack: But this an individual matter, and the other is a Government matter. You honestly owe me and promised to pay me yesterday. Your proposition is to cheat me out of my money.

"Pat: An' it's chatin' ye out of your money, is it? An' haven't I as good a right to chate ye as the Government has to chate the widdies an' orphans whose money is all in government bonds? I'll pay ye on the dimmecratic platform!

How to Win.

The New York Tribune says: We say to you, then, Republicans, throughout the North and South, not one of you can do your whole duty by staying at home until election day, and then going to the polls and voting. By this apathy you may defeat your ticket in some of the States. We need your power and personal co-operation from this time forth until the day of election. If you are a returned soldier, organize with your comrades, and make your presence felt wherever loyal men and true gather. If you are an able bodied man, and prefer peace to war, honest labor and industry to riot and revolution, law and order to rebellion, turn out in procession with those who believe as you do, and keep step to the music of the Union. Your presence is power. Your absence is weakness. Raise the pole. Unfurl the flag. Carry the torch. March. Be one of the great hosts of freedom and truth, and you have done your duty. Hold back, and, despite your vote, the blame of our defeat may rest in part upon you.

During the approaching two months the watchword of Republicans must be Action, Action. The time even for discussion is rapidly passing. The need for it is less imperative than the demand for energy on the part of those who are fully with us. Let us have from these, public demonstrations of our numerical strength on a grand scale. Let Republicans attend our meetings, and take part in every public demonstration, not merely from curiosity to hear the speeches, but as an act of patriotic duty. Then these monster gatherings will have a power like the recent glorious news from Vermont and Maine, to guide as well as to indicate the popular current.

See, finally, that your town and school district clubs have full and accurate lists of all voters and how they stand. Visit the doubtful voters yourself. Find out on what grounds they propose to stay at home on election day. Answer their objections kindly, squarely and fully, if you can, or see that others do. Remember, we are fighting the last great battle of the War for the Union and Freedom. Our success depends upon bringing up our entire reserve.

NOVA SCOTIA.—Some idea may be formed of the intense excitement that now prevails in this province on the subject of its separation from the other confederated colonies, from the fact that a report was current in Halifax on Friday last that a General in the United States Army had offered to send fifteen thousand troops to assist Nova Scotia in breaking away from the New Dominion. The contrast between the present love exhibited towards the United States and the conduct of the people during the rebellion of our Southern States, is a striking illustration of the rapid change of public opinion. The whirligig of time has brought its revenges in this instance.

The Late D. A. Finney, M. C.

Mr. Finney was a native of Vermont, but chose Pennsylvania as his adopted State when quite a young man. He graduated at Allegheny College, in Meadville, about 1841, and soon after commenced the practice of law in that place. He always took an active part in political contests, ably and most earnestly advocating the policy of the Whig party while that party existed, and he was on one or two occasions its candidate for the Legislature, but necessarily unsuccessful, as Crawford county was then largely Democratic. He was one of the early champions of the Republican party, and was chosen to the Senate in 1855, in the present district of Erie and Crawford. He at once took a high position in the Senate, and was confessedly its ablest member during the six years of his service. As chairman of the Finance Committee he fully sustained himself as the leader of that body, and on all legal and constitutional questions he was the master-mind of the first legislative tribunal of the State. He was re-elected by an overwhelming majority in 1858, and served one term as Speaker. In 1866 he was nominated, after a protracted contest, as the Republican candidate for Congress in the Crawford, Venango, Clarion, and Mercer district, and was elected over Gen. A. P. McCalmont, the strongest Democrat in the district. His health had been gradually declining for several years, and he was scarcely able to take his seat at the early session of the present Congress, and soon after its adjournment he sailed for Europe in quest of health, only to find that his disease was beyond human control, and that his constitution was hopelessly broken. After nearly a year of continued suffering the end was reached, and he lives only in the faithful memories of his many devoted friends. He was a man of purest character, of the sternest integrity, and of most faithful friendships and generous impulses. Few of our public men in Pennsylvania will die, so widely and sos incerely lamented as Darwin A. Finney.—Phila. Press.

Letter From a Georgia Clergyman.

* * * * We are still under the black cloud of a Negro Slavery Confederacy. The scenes are similar to those which we passed through in 1861. H. Cobb and R. Toombs are stump-speaking all over the State of Georgia, intensifying the minds of the people on secesh principles, and we are rapidly driving into another destructive war. The people are in a worse condition than they were before the war. It is impossible for this Government to stand. Strange as it may seem, men are made worse by becoming members of the Church than they were before. The Southern Methodist Church made Negro Slavery of Divine origin; it became a religious tenet, and all its abominations were sanctified. A man might blaspheme the holy name of God, and it would only draw a smile; but let a man declare himself anti-Slavery, and a coat of tar or a ride on a rail was sure to come. Ten years before the war, I came very near catching this treatment for reading an abolition newspaper. They sacrificed their children in the war for their slaves, and taught them that it was a religious duty, while the slaves were at home well cared for. And if I did not give the only boy I had, 16 years old, I was a Tory, a traitor. If Seymour and Blair are elected, we (Union men) expect to have to leave the South. We are willing to become hewers of wood and carriers of water for our Union friends in the North. I am hated and abused from morning until night, but all this does not move me. I am determined to hold on to the truth if I burn down at the stake for it. I am persecuted because I am a peace man, and for my friendship to the down-trodden black man. I thank God to-day that I have not put any discoun upon any of His creation.

DR. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS

Are the most efficient and most popular Diuretic medicine known, removing at once any obstruction of the Kidneys, subduing Inflamation and strengthening the Urinary Organs.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Have been in use 35 years, and are daily performing wonderful cures. In many instances where patients were unable to walk upright or to rise without assistance, they have been relieved by a single dose.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Cure all diseases of the Urinary Organs, the symptoms of which are weakness and pain in the back and loins, pains in the joints, difficulty in voiding the urine, general debility, &c.

THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &C.,

Are those organs through which most of the waste or worn out particles of the body passes; these worn out and dead particles are poisonous, consequently when these organs are diseased the whole system becomes deranged, and if not relieved at once the result may be fatal.

This much esteemed and most efficient medicine is the only diuretic that is put up in the shape of Pills, and is much more easily taken than the ordinary diuretic draughts, the Pills being sugar coated

HAPPINESS DEPENDS UPON GOOD DIGESTION.

"Weakness of the Stomach" is the source of more evils than were contained in Pandoras' Box. Debility, headache, nervous tremors, palpitation of the heart, and local pains inn merable, are its direct consequences. It obscures the intellect and gives birth to the most absurd and incoherent fancies; i capacitates a man for business, and renders persistent exertion next to impossible. Yet, strange to say, indigestion is the most neglected of all ailments. And this is the more extraordinary from the fact that an absolute, infallible specific for the disorder can be obtained in every city, town and village of the United States.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS takes as wide a range as the malady which it cures. It pervades every civilized portion of the Western Hemisphere, and its celebrity as a tonic and alterative is everywhere established. It is due to the common sense of the American public to say that the demand for it is immense, and continually on the increase; but still thousands c ntinue to suffer from dyspepsia, with the great fact staring them in the face that a remedy for it exists, as it were, within arms-length of every suffe er. Such is the inconsistency of human nature! Day by day, however, the number of those who manifest this insane indifference to their own health and comfort diminishes, and the time will come, it is confidently believed, when the disease will be expelled from the category of prevalent disorders by this incomparable alterative and restorative.

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE EAR.

In observations and notes taken by Dr. KEYSER, of this city, on the various diseases of the ear, he says that nine out of ten cases could be cured in their incipiency if app lication were made to some responsible and competent aural surgeon. The Doctor quotes from the opinion of Wilde, a well known aural surgeon, who says: "I fear not to reiterate the assertion which I made on several former occasions, that if the disease of the ear were as well studied or understood by the generality of practitioners, and as early attended to as those of the eye, it would be found that they were just as much within the pale of scientific treatment. * * Deafness is so common and so distressing an infirmity, and when of long standing so incurable, that we cannot too strongly urge all medical practitioners to make themse ves familiar with the treatment of the diseases of the ear."

The Doctor says that nearly all annoying Discharges, Buzzings and Morbid Growths peculiar to the organ of the hearing, some of which had lingered through a score or two of years, can be cured or ameliorated by proper treatment.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, September 16, 1868.

The Main election had been discounted yesterday. To-day the market opened strong at 144¼, an advance of ¾ per cent. over yesterday, and gradually rose to 144¾. Gold is scarcer, and loaning is flat; the short interest outstanding uncovered is still very large, and, in all probability, the bulls will twist bears by advancing quotations. War rumors from Europe give the market additional strength, and will aid the bull party more than their own schemes.

The government bond market was firm early in the day, butt owards noon fell off about ¼ per cent. It is the large short sales predicated on a close money market that sustains prices at present, and the New York journals in the interest of the large dealers which constantly speak of large investments made by savings banks, whilst it is well known that these institutions need all their funds for ordinary business purposes. The slightest agitation caused by the hostile attitude of France towards Prussia may cause a decline of two per cent. of our securities, especially the old denominations.

The stock market is galvanized by the clique operators who are anxious to make a grand raid on the bears in the present oversold condition of the market.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 144; Eighty-one's, 113¾; Five Twenties, 1862, 113⅞; do, 1864, 109¼; do, 1865, 110¾; do 1865, new, 108¾; do, 1867, 108¾; do, 1868; 108⅞; Ten Forties, 104½; Railroads—Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 88⅝; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 109¼; Chicago & Rock Island, 100; Chicago & North Western, 88½; do Preferred, 88¾; Michigan Southern, 84⅞; Reading, 91⅞; Erie, 46¾; New York Central, 125¾; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 28½; Western Union Telegraph Co., 34; Adams Express Co., 50¾; Merchants Union, 24¾. Mining shares—Gregory, 3,90; Corydon, 20; Quartz Hill, 1,10; Smith & Parmalee, 4,55; Quicksilver, 21.

—We clip the following from the Philadelphia Ledger of Tuesday, in regard to the Pennsylvania Central Railroad: The sales of this stock have greatly increased within the last three months, and there is reason to believe that a very large amount of the purchases within that time have been for New York account. It is well known that some of the great railway managers of that city have been considerably annoyed by the Pennsylvania road, in its competition with them for the trade of the great West. It is quite in the way of New York railway managers to buy out where they cannot otherwise effect their purpose, and as frequent negotiations on joints in difference with the Pennsylvania Company have proved unsatisfactory, the threat has been openly made, that they would find other and more direct means of effecting the unanimity desired—they would possess themselves of a controlling interest by buying up the stock. The recent operations in that city in the open attempt of the New York Central to swallow the New York and Erie, proves that the gigantic proportions of an undertaking of the sort is no bar to the effort to effect it. In buying up the control of the Pennsylvania road, there is this important fact in favor of the proposition that did not, nor does not, exist with the New York and Erie. The Pennsylvania road is a largely productive property, paying a big interest on its cost at anything like the present price, whereas the New York and Erie is believed to be valueless beyond its indebtedness. The business of the company is largely increasing, its revenues for the eight months of the current year being over nine hundred thousand dollars in excess of receipts in corresponding time last year, guarantying a five per cent. dividend at the next semi-annual period, month after next.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.: Gold, 144⅝; United States Sixes, 1881's, 114; 5-20's, 1862, 113⅜; 5-20's, 1864, 109¾; 5-20's, 1865, 111; 10-40's, 104¾; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 109; 5-20's, January and July, '67 109; '68, 109; June 7-30's, par less ¼; July 7-30's, do ¼; August 119; Sept., 119; Oct. 118½; Union Pacific Railroad, 102; Central, 103.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTEE, WEDNESDAY, September 16, 1868.

CRUDE.

The Crude market was unusually active to-day, the reported sales aggregating nine thousand barrels; at the opening spot sold to the extent of several thousand barrels at yesterdays quotations, 11 to 11¼, but at the close, there were sellers at 11, with but few buyers at anything over 10¾, and as will be seen, we have a sale at 10⅞. We also heard that there were offers to sell for any delivery, between now and January 1st, at 11. The sales were:

REFINED.

The market for Refined was considerably excited, the reported sales being unusually large, aggregating about eighteen thousand barrels, but, as will be seen, prices, particularly for Seatember, ruled lower. September sold at 28¾ to 29c, and the last three months, together and separately, at from 29 to 29¼c. There is still some inquiry on western account, but the orders, as yet, do not appear to be sufficiently large to offset the depressing advices from the east. The sales were:

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, September 16, 1868.

The general markets are quiet and devoid of anything that is really new or important. The fact that both Wheat and Flour have reacted and advanced slightly in Chicago, caused a slight commotion in commercial circles, and there are some who are impressed with the belief that the bottom has been touched. This may be the case, temporarily, but unless a sharp foreign demand should spring up, causing large foreign shipments, the chances are that there will be another reaction, and lower prices than we have yet had.

GROCERIES—The Grocery market is reported more active, consequent, mainly on the resumption of navigation, and with an increased jobbing demand, the volume of business is increasing, while prices, compared with last week, have undergone no material change. As noted in our last report, Sugars are firmer, while Coffee is a shade easier, under the influence of the decline in gold. The following are the ruling quotations:

SUGARS—Cuba, 12¼c for good grocery 12¾ to 13c for prime; and 14c for choice Porto Rico—good, 13c; prime, 13¼; choice 14¼ to 15c; Clarified Cuba, 14 to 14½c. Refined—Standard Hard, 17c; A, 16c; 15¾c; Extra C, 15¼c; Sugar House, 10½ to 11.

COFFEE—Rio ranges all the way from 21¼ to 26½c for common to strictly prime. Java 37 to 38c.

SYRUPS—Lovering's $1,10; Silver Drips, $1,10; White Drips, $1,20; medium brands, 75 to 85c; common, 60 to 65c; Booth & Edgar Syrup, $1.

RICE—Rangoon, good, 10¼c; prime to choice, 11 to 11¼c; Carolina, 12 to 12½c.

A New Motor--An Important Discovery by Capt. Ericson--Solar Heat the Motive Power.

(From the New York Times.)

It has been reserved for the distinguished engineer, Capt. Ericson, to supply a new fuel in the place of coal, and a new motor in the place of steam. His device is as novel in conception as it promises to be astounding in result. In brief, his scheme is to collect and concentrate the radiating heat of the sun, and to use it for the production of motive power; He feeds his furnace, so to speak, from the sun. This motor he calls the Solar Engine.

The first public announcement of the success of this extraordinary device—for "solar engines," kept in motion solely by the sun's radiant heat, had been actually constructed by him and successfully operated—was made by Capt. Ericson to the Swedish University of Lund, at its late centennial celebration. From his communication to that body it appears that for several years this engineer has been experimenting with the view of so concentrating the sun's heat as to obtain from it a practical motive power. At length, at the beginning of the present year, he was able to construct three "solar engines," of which the first was driven by steam formed by the concentration of the heat of the solar rays, and the other two by the expansion of atmospheric air, heated directly by concentrated radiant heat. He shows that, such is the enormous development of solar heat, an area of ten feet square on the sun's surface will drive "a real steam engine of 45,984 horse power, demanding a consumption of more than 100,000 pounds of coal every hour." But, of course, interesting as are these new studies of the sun's heating power, his statistics regarding the possible concentration of the sun's heat on the earth's surface are still more so. And, without going into the process, we may briefly say that Capt. Erricson's experiments show that the concentration of solar heat on ten feet square (or 100 square feet of surface) develops a power exceeding one horse power. If, therefore, he adds, a Swedish square mile were covered with these solar engines, "64,800 engines, each of 100 horse power," could be kept in motion by the radiant heat of the sun thus collected.

The audacity of this enterprise and the incalculable reach of its results are alike bewildering; but it is already, as we have said, a practical sucsess, insomuch that Mr. Delamater, proprietor of the well known Delamater iron works, declares in a late scientific publication that "before the termination of the present season bread will be prepared from flour ground by the solar engine!"

The exact nature of the concentrating mechanism invented by Capt. Ericsson is not yet apparently made public; but the result, in general terms, is, as has been said, to collect a force equal to a horse power from the sun's heat on every 100 square feet surface. To introduce a new motor into mechanism marks a new era in civilization. We call this the "age of steam"—but what shall we style the coming age? And, independent of the new force thus obtained, we must reflect on the economy effected in old forces. Not only will coal fields, whose capacity is now anxiously discussed by political economists, receive an unexpected and all potent ally, but in many ways the question of the cost of the fuel would be affected—every economy in the use of coal for machinery, leaving more for other purposes. Meanwhile the new power is as exhaustless as the sun itself. It may be objected that this is not a "cloudy day" force. If true, this would not be an important objection. But a brain great enough to master main results may be usually trusted to remove mechanical impediments in details. To store up fuel in the sky is a trifle to a man who makes a coal pit of the sun.

There are many other obvious points for reflection connected with this extraordinary new motor. For example, the economy of cost in using the sun's heat for fuel, the comparative ease of regulating the mechanism, compared with the management of steam machinery, which latter is an art in itself, and the safety of the apparatus. But all these will better appear when more is known of what promises to be a revolutionary agent in science, in industry and in commerce.

A WEALTHY New York merchant, Mr. A. T. Stewart, paid an income tax, in 1865, amounting to more than the total paid by the tax payers of ten States and four territories. He paid $197,000 more than was paid by all the people of New Hampshire, $5,000 more than was paid by the people of Maine, and half as much more as was paid by the people of Michigan. Out of the thirty-six millions of people in the United Stetes the statement of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for the year 1857 shows that but 240,134 returned incomes. Out of this number 63,085 returned incomes of $20, or less, and 42,947 under $50, leaving 134,102 forcement of the fourth demand of the Democ to pay the bulk of $14,000,000. A rigid democratic Platform, for the taxation of "every description of property" will "equalize" the tax in such a manner as to compel the poorest workingman to contribute his share of taxes, thereby relieving the 134,102 wealthy individuals of a portion of their present burden. Let everybody and everything be taxed, by all means.

A MASSACHUSETTS paper says: "Many years ago two brothers Captain Nathaniel Smith, of Gloucester, and Captain Ammi B. Smith, of Ipswich made many voyages in the European trade. It had so happened that while the one was at home the other would be abroad, and they had not seen each other for several years. One morning, in the middle of the broad Atlantic, two ships sighted each other, one steering east and the other west, with a good breeze. The usual preparations were made for speaking, and upon ranging within hailing distance, the sails were thrown aback, and there, face to face, each on his own quarter-deck, stood the brothers. Affectionate greetings, with the tidings from abroad and the thrice welcome news from home, were exchanged, and after cordial wishes for each other's prosperity, the vessels filled away and stood upon their courses. They did not meet again, at sea or on shore, for some years afterwards."

A MONUMENT commemorative of the long and unsuccessful struggles of the Poles for national independence was uncovered at Rapperswyl, Canton St. Gall, Switzerland, on August 17th. Two hundred Poles and the same number of sympathizing friends, marched in procession to the monument, a national air was sung, the monument was uncovered, and twelve maidens in white deposited laurel wreaths at its base. Count Plater, the most distinguished of the Polish residents of Switzerland, delivered an address in which he asserted that the nations of Western Europe would soon realize the uncontrovertible truth that in an independent Poland alone they could find shelter from the Northern Colossus of Russia. During the banquet that was given on the occasion thirty-seven congratulatory telegrams were received, Victor Hugo, Jules Favre, Carnot, Pelletan, Quinet, Salvador, and Klapka being amongst the number of the well-wishers.

Thirty Thousand Women in the Hop Fields.

It is estimated that thirty thousand women are now engaged in picking hops in the State of Wisconsin. Immense trains of cars were required to convey them to the hop picking region, and the scenes as thousands of women landed at the depots were novel and picturesque in the extreme. At least ten thousand passed through Portage city. A local paper describes the advent of the merry crowd as follows:

"The first instalment by cars, some three hundred, came last week Tuesday evening. Wednesday evening nearly one thousand came. Thursday and Friday evenings each five or six hundred. Saturday afternoon it was rumored that a very large number were on the way, and the rumor was corroborated by the great number of teams that seemed to be in waiting. About train time—half-past seven—probably one thousand persons had collected at the depot to witness the arrival. It was then found that the cars were two hours behind time, and that instead of one train, two were coming, with twenty-eight cars loaded. When the two hours were up, the crowd at the depot had increased; and this, with the acres of two and four-horse wagons about the depot, and the music and fun of the merry drivers, formed no small preliminary show of itself. But as the two trains came thundering along, and as they stretched themselves away beyond and away back of the depot and stopped, the excitement was on tip-toe. And when two thousand pickers began to pour out of every door of those twenty-eight cars, the scene beat all other western shows. Cheering, laughing, singing, shouting! Admirable confusion—no disorder. Sections of tens, platoons of twenties, companies of forties, all officered, moving in every possible direction; corporals guiding their squads; captains giving orders to their companies; marching and countermarching—direct and in echelon—forming camp and breaking camp; armed and equipped with umbrellas, parasols, satchels, baskets, bandboxes, bags, bundles, babies! Teamsters shouting for their loads—rush for the wagons—tumbling in! all formed a scene to beat any army camp or movement! We can't do justice to the subject.

"But great as was the display on Saturday evening, it was more than matched on Monday evening! We have no means of knowing exactly how many came on the two trains, but from the best information we can get we put the number at twenty-five hundred!"

Singular Escape from Prison.

An escape which reminds one of Monte Cristo's adventure is reported from the military prison at Tours, France. A soldier, recently condemned to five years' seclusion, a dark-tempered individual, who used always to retire a few minutes before the rest, withdrew the other evening as usual; when they reached the cell his fellow-prisoners remarked nothing particular about the place and their comrade appeared to be fast asleep. The jailors, too, made their "round," and all seemed right. The next morning the prisoners being called up to Mass, and the melancholy looking soldier not waking, he was joked at and bullied by his companions; but as this did not rouse him, they went to the bed and pulled the blankets about, when lo! they saw the bed occupied—not by the soldier, but by a figure sufficiently well got up to deceive the keenest eye. A bolster and old clothes had served the purpose, the bolster being coiffed with the undress uniform cap the prisoner used to put on at night. Of course the director of the prison was immediately informed of the discovery and the place was searched. It was obvious the stratagem had been resorted to in order to facilitate escape. No where was the missing man to be found. At last they arrived at the conclusion that he must have got away through a certain dark passage, the existence of which was almost forgotten, and which was closed only by one pad-locked door. Anyhow the prisoner has made off, and has not been traced, though he must have been very lightly clad indeed when he left.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE APPETITE FOR

Tobacco Destroyed!

Leave off Chewing and Smoking the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco.

One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION IS WARRANTED to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be, OR IF IT FAILS IN ANY CASE THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobocco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.

NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely removed me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.

W. P. HEALD.

[From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.

E. W. ADKINS.

[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

ORDINANCES.

PITTSBURGH.

AN ORDINANCE

Providing for the Acceptance by the City of Pittsburgh of Water Pipes Laid from the Reservoir to the Western Pennsylvania Hospital.

WHEREAS, By an Act of Assembly, approved March 5, 1858, the Western Pennsylvania Hospital was authorized and empowered to and with the consent of the Councils of the City of Pittsburgh, to convey by pipes and conduits from the Upper Reservoir of said city, a sufficient supply of water for the uses of said Hospital, and to lay down and maintain in repair said pipes and conduits; and by ordinance of Council passed July 26, 1858, the Councils of said city granted to the said Western Pennsylvania Hospital the right and privilege to convey by pipes and conduits from the Upper Basin of said city to the said Hospital a sufficient supply of water for the use of the Hospital, in the manner and under the restrictions and regulations as set forth in the said Act of Assembly.

And Whereas, The said Western Pennsylvania Hospital, in pursuance of the authority aforesaid, did lay down and have since maintained and kept in repair pipes and conduits for the purpose aforesaid.

And Whereas, By said Act of Assembly it is provided that no openings, attachments, or connections with the pipes and conduits laid down by said Western Pennsylvania Hospital, shall be permitted unless the consent of the manager of said Hospital, and also the consent of the City Council shall be first had and obtained.

And whereas, many citizens of the city of Pittsburgh can be accommodated by the use of said pipes, and the managers of said hospital have expressed their willingness that the same should be so used.

Now be it ordained and enacted by the City of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Council assembled, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that the said City of Pittsburgh shall hereafter take, accept, maintain, manage and control the pipe and conduits laid down by the Western Pennsylvania Hospital from the Upper Reservoir to said Hospital, in the same manner, and as fully to all intent and purposes, as if the same had been originally laid down by said city, and the proper officers of said city are hereby authorized to make for the same purposes as connections are made to other water pipes in said city.

Provided that the supply of water to said Hospital shall be in no manner diminished, and the same shall be furnished to said Hospital free of charge.

And provided further, that the provisions of this ordinance shall take effect whenever the managers of said Hospital shall signify their approval, and consent to the same.

Ordained and enacted into a law in Councils, this 31st day of August, A. D. 1868.

AN ORDINANCE to authorize the Grading and Paving of three Streets and one Alley, and the Grading of one Street and two Alleys.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Allegheny, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Committee on Streets be and they are hereby authorized and directed to invite and receive proposals for the Grading and Paving of ST. CLAIR STREET, in the First Ward, from Fremont alley to Borland's alley; BEECH STREET, from Allegheny avenue to Western avenue; CHESNUT STREET, from Third street to O'Hara street; ACE ALLEY, from Isabella street to Rose alley, and for the Grading of FRAZER STREET, DIVINE ALLEY and NELSON'S ALLEY, from the northern terminus of Shields alley to the Perrysville plank road, and to contract therefor with the lowest and best bidder or bidders, at their discretion.

SEC. 2. That for the purpose of defraying the cost and expenses of the said improvements, there be and is hereby levied a special tax, to be equally assessed upon the several lots bounding and abutting upon said streets and alleys respectively, in proportion to the feet front in them respectively composed, and bounding and abutting as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. That as soon as the cost and expenses of said improvements shall be fully ascertained, it shall be the duty of the Street Commissioner to assess and apportion the same among the several lots bounding and abutting upon said streets and alleys respectively, according to the rule above indicated, and thereupon proceed to make demand and collect the same, according to the provisions of the act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act defining the manner of collecting the expenses of grading and paving of the streets and alleys of the City of Allegheny, and for other purposes," passed the 30th of March, 1852.

SEC. 4. That so much of any ordinance as may conflict with or be supplied by the foregoing, be and the same is hereby repealed.

POSITIVELY THE LAST WEEK

OF THE FAVORITE

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

Night School.—Night School opens at the Fourth ward Public School building, Pittsburgh, next Monday evening at 7 P. M.

Threatening.—Daniel Buchanan alleges that Wm. Ditmore threatened to take his life. He values his life and seeks the protection of the law. Alderman Taylor issued a warrant for the arrest of William.

Assault and Battery.—Frank Cannovan was arrested yesterday and taken before the Mayor on a charge of assault and battery, on oath of James Hinely. He was held to bail for his appearance at Court.

Abandonment.—Margaret Detzal yesterday made information before Alderman Taylor, against her husband, Frank Detzal, for abandonment. Frank was arrested and committed for a hearing in default of $500 bail.

No Quorum.—A meeting of the Petroleum Association was called yesterday morning, but at the appointed time there were not enough members present to constitute a quorum, and the meeting had to be postponed.

Surety.—Fred. Crook made information yesterday before Alderman Mullen, against Edward Wiedman, for surety of the peace. Fred. alleges that Wiedman threatened to shoot, stab and kill him the first chance he got. A warrant was issued.

We have received from W. G. Johnston & Co., printers and stationers, No. 57 Wood street, a card containing the names of the streets of the consolidated city. This will prove a great help to those desiring to learn on what thoroughfares they and friends reside, "under an ordinance of Councils."

Work Commenced.—Operations on the sewerage improvement of Allegheny have been commenced. Ground was broken on the Federal street branch yesterday. A large force of workmen are engaged, and it is the design of the contractor, Jas. Reno, Esq., to push the work forward as rapidly as possible.

Alleged Fraud.—Charles Newman alleges that Conrad Young obtained merchandise from him to the amount of nineteen dollars and eighty cents, and that he is about to leave the State without paying for the same. Conrad was arrested and will have a hearing on Saturday before Alderman Mullen.

Aggravated Assault.—Nicholas Baum was brought before Alderman Mullen yesterday, charged with committing an aggravated assault and battery on the person of Sophia Wishart. It is alleged that the accused caught her by the throat, struck her on the head and knocked her down. In default of bail he was committed for trial.

Mysterious.—Tuesday evening, two well known gentlemen of this city, took a glass of beer together, and shortly afterwards both were seized with violent symptoms of mineral poisoning, which continued for several hours. Their recovery was considered doubtful for a time, but they were much better yesterday, and will probably soon be fully recovered.

Alleged Pick-Pocket Arrested.—Tuesday night, at a late hour, Lieut. Wilmot arrested two men at the corner of Fifth avenue and Market street, one for being drunk and the other for attempting to pick his pockets. The drunken man was kept in the lock-up until yesterday morning when he was discharged. The pick-pocket was committed for a further hearing.

A Horse Difficulty.—Thomas Taylor, a colored resident of Allegheny, says that John Lindsay, of Plum township, sold him a horse for the sum of forty-nine dollars, representing at the time of the sale that the animal was sound in wind, limb and every way, which was not the case. Alderman Mullen issued a warrant for the arrest of Lindsay on a charge of false pretence.

Larceny as Bailee.—John Holmes made information yesterday, before Alderman Mullen against Thomas Bearing, for larceny as bailee. John alleges that Thomas obtained from him paints, brushes and other material, amounting in value to $25, which he now refuses to return. The accused was arrested and the case settled by the return of the property and payment of the costs.

Malicious Mischief.—S. B. McElroy made information before Alderman Owston, yesterday, charging James Sterling with malicious mischief. The prosecutor, it appears, was driving on Penn street, in the Fifteenth ward, in a light wagon when, as he alleges, the accused, who was driving a heavy wagon, ran against his wagon, turning it over and injuring his horse. A warrant was issued for the malicious driver.

Borough Created.—By a decree of the Court made to-day, the village of Etna, in Shaler township, was incorporated under the title of the Borough of Etna. The Court fixed the Public School House at that place, and the first Tuesday (6th day) of October as the time for holding the first borough election. Robert Chessman has been appointed Judge and Edward Thomas and Edward Eichenlaub Inspectors to hold said election.

Embezzlement.—Christ Gaefke made information before Justic Ammon, yesterday, charging Chas. Kirnpell with embezzlement. It appears that the accused was appointed Treasurer of the late Sængerbund during the late Sængerfest, in this city, and entrusted with the funds of the society, about $30 of which he appropriated to his own use, as is alleged by the prosecutor. Being in jail on another charge, a commitment was lodged against him.

Hiatt's Voters Text Book.—We have received from the agent now canvassing the city for orders a cloth-bound copy of what we conceive to be one of the most thorough text books for politicians ever published in this country. It contains everything pertaining to politics, from the earliest history of our country down to the last event in this campaign, together with a sea of valuable statistical information and data, including a complete and concise daily record of everything that happened in the late rebellion. Stump speakers, writers, scholars, and in fact every citizen should possess one.

Bearded in Their Den.

The announcement that the Grant Hussars would go armed, prepared for exigencies in the way of insult or stone throwing on the part of the opposition, had a salutary effect, as the procession last night was in no way interfered with, although the horsemen marched through the "Bull Run District" with bands playing and colors flying. We take this as an evidence that the "mudlarks" and others have taken a sober second thought, and will no more insult or interfere with Republican processions. If they do, look out for an increase in the mortality list.

Arrested on Suspicion.

Officer Irvin arrested two men at the Union Depot, supposing them to be the men who perpetrated the daring robbery at the Banking House of the National Trust Company. They were taken to the Mayor's office and the officers of the bank sent for, but as they were unable to recognize the men as the parties who had stolen the money they were discharged. One of them gave his name as James Burns, and appears to answer the description of the one who took the money. The other refused to give his name. They are both strangers in the city, and so far as can be ascertained are not here on any legitimate busi-

Grant Hussars—First Parade—Enthusiasm Along the Route—A Salute Fired in Honor of Maine.

Last night we witnessed one of the most creditable and imposing processions of the campaign, the newly organized "Grant Hussars" Regiment turning out with two superb brass guns obtained from the Secretary of War through the influence of two of our leading citizens. Company "A" of the Regiment, numbering some one hundred and thirty men, under command of Capt. S. A. M'Farren, and Lieuts. J. P. Logan, D. Dunseath and J. P. Johnston, formed on Water street and proceeded to Allegheny, where, on North Common, it was formed with several other companies into a regiment, and under command of Col. William Blakely of the cavalry, and Major W. R. Stokes of the artillery, the imposing cavalcade moved in line of procession to this city. All along the route there were evidences of enthusiasm manifested, and the horsemen were greeted with cheers at every prominent point, while at some places fireworks and illuminations were offered in honor of the occasion. After parading the principal streets, giving cheers at the various newspaper offices and honoring the residence of Mr. Houston of this journal with cheers and a serenade, the cavalcade was brought to a halt on Water street, where a salute in honor of the glorous victories achieved in Vermont and Maine, was fired on the Monongahela wharf. When through firing the salute the line was re-formed and marched through the "Bull-run District," down to Liberty street and from thence to the corner of St. Clair street, where the men were dismissed with three time three cheers for Grant and Colfax.

The procession was highly creditable and will not be without its effect on the present campaign. The music of the occasion was furnished by the members of the Second ward brass band, who were seated in a beautiful chariot wagon drawn by four splendid gray horses. The "Grant Hussars" have not yet thoroughly completed their organization, but by the 24th instant it is expected that at least a fully equipped regiment will be organised to participate in the Convention.

Thirteenth Ward Nominations.

The Republicans of the Thirteenth ward, at a meeting on Monday evening, suggested the following names as candidates for ward offices, to be ballotted for on Saturday evening, Oct. 3d.

Select Council—R. G. Herron, Matthew Anderson, Chas. P. Duff, John Harrison. (Two to be nominated.)

Common Council—J. H. Hillerman, Ben. Waughter, Wm. Burke, Samuel Ewart, W. A. Gildenfenny, Thomas C. Dickerson. (Two to be nominated.)

School Directors—Alex. McBane, James Cassiday, George Ewart, Samuel McCutcheon, Robert McCoubrey, Matthew Anderson, Robert Inder, Wm. Rigdon. (Three to be nominated.)

Judge of Elections—E. P. Jones, George Ewart, Willis Boothe. (One to be nominated.)

Inspectors—Samuel Belfore, Joseph Dixon, A Barnett, W. H. Cassiday, Wm. Warren, Geo. H. Lawton. (One to be nominated.

Return Inspector—E. T. Cassiday, R. G. Herron, John F. Herron, J. H. Hillerman, W. J. White, Wm. Robb. (One to be nominated.)

Alderman—John Harrison, Robert Roy, J. M. Hunter. (One to be nominated.)

Constable—George Evans, A. Earley, Jno. M. Lewis, J. H. Seaman, W. S. Smith.

A resolution was adopted at the meeting that the Republicans of the Thirteenth ward turn out on the 24th on horseback and in wagons.

The Grant and Colfax Club will hold an out door meeting on Monday evening next in front of the School House. Eminent speakers will be present.

Grand Opening Rally for Grant and Colfax in Findley Township.

The first and opening meeting for the campaign for Findley township took place Saturday evening last, and was a grand success. The meeting was addressed by Col. T. M. Bayne and Thomas Ewing, Esq. They made able and telling speeches, in which they handled the reconstruction measures of Congress in such a masterly manner that no intelligent voter could deny the justice and righteousness of those acts. They also dealt the greenback Pendleton humbug some deadly blows, exploding the whole theory as a grand humbug, designed to deceive the unthinking voter. The meeting was also addressed by a young Mr. Ferguson, but owing to the lateness of the hour he did not go into an argument, but promised to do so on some future occasion. The meeting was also entertained by the Bellville Glee Club, the Findley String Band and the Clinton Glee Club, all of which performed their parts nobly. There is to be a meeting on next Saturday evening at seven o'clock, at the same place. Also a grand mass meeting in Clinton October 8th, at twelve o'clock M.: also in the evening at seven o'clock, at which meetings able and eloquent speakers will address the people. The meetings will be entertained by good music. We are bound to redeem old Findley and "fight it out on this line if it takes all summer." G. B.

Republican Meeting in the Ninth Ward.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Republicans of the Ninth ward was held last evening at the corner of Penn and O'Hara streets.

A brass band added much to the interest of the occasion by discoursing at intervals patriotic strains.

The meeting was organized at half past seven o'clock, Colonel Joseph Kaye presiding, with the usual lists of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

Addresses were delivered by J. W. F. White, Esq., and Major A. M. Brown, who entertained the audience until a late hour with able and eloquent discussions on the issues of the day.

The meeting adjourned about half past ten o'clock, with three rousing cheers for the Republican candidates on the National, State and county tickets.

Meeting in the Eighth Ward.

A large meeting of the Republicans of the Seventh and Eighth wards was held at the corner of Webster and Fulton streets, last evening, under the auspices of the Grant and Colfax Club of those wards. The "Marching Phalanx" turned out with their new caps, capes and torches to escort the Fourth Ward Grant and Colfax Club to the meeting, and as they marched down Wylie street and Fifth avenue presented a very fine appearance. When they returned a great crowd of citizens had assembled. The meeting was then called to order by the President of the Club, after which John M. Kirkpatrick and C. W. Robb, Esqs., delivered able and eloquent addresses.

Much Credit

Is due to Mr. Henry Paulus, the Assessor of the Fifth ward, Allegheny, for the active work he has done for the Republican cause. There are many good Republicans in that ward, but they needed stirring up, and Mr. Paulus has stirred them. He has raised a company of about fifty men, all members of the Fifth ward Grant and Colfax Club, and they are all uniformed in bronze caps and capes and armed with torches. They intend to take an active part in the great Convention of the 24th inst., and during the rest of the campaign. If somebody in each ward would undertake what Capt. Paulus has done for the Fifth, the majority we would roll up in October and November would astonish the opposition.

A Daring Attempt at Murder—A Young Man Shot at.

Tuesday evening a shooting case occurred in the Eighth ward which came very near resulting in the death of an estimable young man, and adding another of those crimes to our municipal calendar which of late gained for our city such an unenviable reputation. It seems that the young man, who is the son of one of our most respectable citizens, had been spending the evening at a select gathering in the house of a friend, and was returning home in company with his sister shortly after eleven o'clock. The residence of their parents is situated on Gum street, and they were proceeding along Webster street, in the proper direction, when the attention of the youth was attracted to a crowd of loafers lounging on the corner of Webster and Gum streets, who seemed to be watching their movements. The young people thought nothing of the occurrence, and proceeded on their way without fear. They had not gone far, however, before it became evident to them that they were followed. Looking back the youth noticed a man, apparently not many years older than himself, coming along after them. The young man being unarmed, saw the helplessness of his situation and endeavored to avoid the follower by walking faster, but the stranger also quickened his pace and passed them once, but allowed them to overtake and get ahead of him again. He maneuvered in this way for several squares, until the young couple, arriving opposite their own door, crossed the street for the purpose of entering. Just as the young man had reached his own step, the stranger, who had remained on the opposite side of the street, raised a pistol and fired. Fortunately his aim was too low and the ball struck the pavement at the intended victim's feet, rebounding without doing any harm. Immediately after the firing the would-be assassin disappeared and no trace of him could afterwards be discovered. The young couple quickly gained admittance to their home, and after being somewhat calmed related the circumstances to their parents. The affair throughout was certainly an extremely bold and daring attempt at murder, which should entitle the perpetrator, if captured, to a lengthy term in the Penitentiary.

The Coulter-Brown Boat Race.

The New York Clipper contains the following relative to the late race for the championship which took place here on the 9th inst. between Coulter and Brown: It is a pleasure to know that after a succession of fiascos, which have done much to injure rowing interests, we have at last been favored with a championship race which was conducted properly throughout, and which was decided strictly upon the merits of the men, and is very creditable to both. It proved beyond question that Brown is the better man of the two—at present at least—and it is we think doubtful that the adoption of a different style of oarsmanship by the Pennsylvanian will ever enable him to reverse this verdict. Walter has proved that he can pull when he wishes to do so, and we trust that in all future races he will exert himself to achieve the victory as he did in the present instance. Coulter unquestionably did his very best to secure the trophy, and those who risked their money upon him can find no fault with him for losing. He has shown himself to be an excellent oarsmen, and few would pull a hopeless stern race with so much pluck and determination as he did. The wonderful time said to have been made has caused, naturally enough, many doubts to be expressed concerning the course being five miles in length, and of course everything goes to strengthen that supposition. We do not desire to deprive the oarsmen of one iota of the credit which is their due, and, therefore, we would suggest that, in order to settle the matter at once and forever, those interested adopt such measures as will prove either the correctness of falsity of the statement. Unless they do so, it will always be doubted, and if they are convinced that the survey was correct they can have no objection to follow this suggestion.

Exhibition of Fruits and Flowers.

A very fine display of fruits and flowers has been made for a few days past by Messrs. Elliot Bros. & Burgess at their store, No. 116 Market street, in this city, attracting the admiration of great numbers of people and proving very palpably that the taste for horticulture and the beauties of Flora pervades our community generally. The exhibition of grapes, although not excessive in variety, was particularly fine; the Delaware, a peerless fruit, but now in the last days of its season; the Iona, its twin-sister, more luxuriant in its growth and slower in its maturity; the Rogers' Hybrid and Concord, which promise to supplant the Catawba as popular grapes for the million; the Ives seedling and Norton's Virginia seedling, which promise to take the very highest place for the vintage; all these varieties were represented most favorably. We saw also a half dozen of the finer varieties of peaches, and some glorious specimens of pears, the Bartlett, Beurre Rose, Duchesse d'Angouleme and Oswego. The Ohio ever-bearing Raspberry was noticed by all visitors; by proper treatment it is made to bear continually until the frost, the branches bearing the fruit, ripe and unripe in all its stages, mingled with the constantly renewed blossoms. A very large collection of flowers, of the choicest varieties, in pots and cut in boquets, received the homage of the lady visitors. The Messrs. Elliot are doing much to promote a refined and cultivated taste in the line of their specialities, and it is pleasant to know that their efforts are satisfactorily appreciated by their fellow citizens.

A Strange Stranger.

About half-past two o'clock yesterday morning, officer Cutler, of the Allegheny night police, found a man lying on the pavement on Pasture Lane, who appeared to be in an almost insensible condition. The officer took him to the lock up, and after he was confined a short time he began to exhibit symptoms of delirium tremens. Later in the day he became much better and informed the Mayor that he had arrived in the city two or three days since from Cincinnati, but would give no further information of himself. His face was badly scratched, in explanation of which he stated that he had been assaulted by two men and knocked down a short time previous to his arrest by the police. He had about forty-five dollars in his possession, which it seems strange his assailants did not carry off. There being no charge against him, he was released in the afternoon and disappeared.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The engagement of Miss Nellie Germon and Mr. Robert Johnson has been an unusually profitable one here so far, and they appear to be increasing in favor. The "Sons of Liberty" will be reproduced to-night, and we would advise all who have not seen Nellie in the character of "Tim" to go by all means. Their engagement, we regret to say, ends Saturday night. During next week we will be favored with the spectacular drama and ballet dancing by one of the best troupes in America.

LOGRENIA.—This celebrated conjuror continues to draw crowded houses at Masonic Hall. This is positively the last week of his stay in this city, and those who have not witnessed the many wonders presented at his exhibitions should not fail to avail themselves of perhaps the last opportunity they may ever have of doing so. He continues to distribute one hundred valuable gifts to the audience at each entertainment.

Amende Honorable.

In using the term amende honorable in the present instance we do not mean that it shall be construed in its broadest sense, which, in France, is an infamous punishment inflicted upon traitors, parricides and sacriligious persons, but used in the common acceptation of the term or phrase, denotes a reparation to an injured party for improper treatment. The story we have to relate in connection with the above is the oft repeated tale of misplaced confidence. Several months since Fred. Kimmel formed the acquaintance of a young lady in East Birmingham, whose name for prudential reasons we suppress. The acquaintance grew into intimacy, which the young man took advantage of, and by professions of love and promises to marry succeeded in accomplishing the ruin of the confiding young creature and then cast her off. The young lady, after several vain attempts to induce him to redeem his oft repeated promises, appealed to the law for that protection it so justly grants to her sex. An information was made before Justice Ammon, charging the young lothario with a misdemeanor. He was arrested and brought to the office, and finding that he was caught in a trap, from which it might be difficult to extricate himself, he consented to a union. The Justice performed the ceremony, and thus saved the poor girl from lasting disgrace and the young man from jail.

MORTGAGES FILED.

Eight mortgages were left for record same day.

From the Oil Regions.

The Titusville Herald says: The price of petroleum has been steadily falling in the outside markets and on the Creek since July, and on Saturday last sales were effected at $3,75, a decline from the ruling price of July of $1,25. The decline on the Creek has been occasioned in part by an advance in freight charges to New York and Philadelphia of $1.00 per barrel. There has also been considerable local speculation which has had more to do with forcing prices down than it is generally given credit for. The falling off in the price of petroleum on the Creek within the past three weeks and the present neglected state of the market have had the effect of lessening to a very considerable extent the demand for territory and unless leases are situated in the best producing territory they are taken very slowly. New wells are not being commenced as fast as they were two weeks ago, and from present appearances it seems that the maximum number of new wells drilling at any one period during the year will be reached during this month. Should another rise in petroleum take place this year, it will be too late to give any strong impetus to development, as only a few days of favorable weather for starting new wells now remains.

Contracts are now under negotiation for the construction of about fifty thousand barrels of iron tankage.

Caught Again.

The female pickpockets, an account of whose proceedings and arrest we published yesterday, were released on bail. It appears that after the information was returned to Court and the women committed to jail for trial, a gentleman offered to stand good for their appearance at Court, and was accepted by the Mayor, who thereupon ordered the release of the women from custody Tuesday evening. Yesterday morning they had made arrangements to leave town, and were about to take the cars for the West when they were re-arrested and committed for trial.

The matter of their release was brought before the Court, when the case was immediately called and failing to put in an appearance, a process was issued, upon which the second arrest was made. They will probably remain in jail now until the case is disposed of by the Court.

Public Reading.

The Rev. Wm. Evans, one of the most accomplished readers in this country, will give an entertainment in the Academy of Music, on Thursday evening, the 17th, consisting in part of selections from Dickens. It is said that his rendering is equal, if not superior, to that of the author himself. Mr. Evans has a voice of wonderful power and culture, and has attracted crowded houses in the principal cities in this country and in England. He has recently abandoned the Theatre and accepted Christianity, and is now the assistant pastor of the Second Methodist Church, Wylie street. The proceeds of this entertainment are to be applied to fitting up his parsonage in this city. The public should appreciate the cause and improve the opportunity of being pleased and doing good. Admission, 50 cents.

The Weather Yesterday.

Yesterday was unusually cold for the season of the year. A great many persons donned over-coats, shawls, &c., and found these articles very comfortable during the latter part of the day and evening.

Housekeepers commenced preparing for cool weather by unstopping chimneys, cleaning out grates and making such other general arrangements as are necessary previous to the lighting of the winter fires. We noticed in our journeyings during the evening many

"Happy homes, in which the light
Of household fires gleamed warm and bright."

Revealing pictures of smiling, joyous family groups—the embodiments of home comfort and enjoyments—which irresistibly attracted the attention and were exceedingly pleasant to look upon.

Explanation.

Our readers are familiar with the arrest of the German burglar, Deitz, who was captured at his residence on Pike street, in the Third ward, Allegheny, by the police. There are several families of that name residing on Pike street, and lest the names and parties should become mixed so as to place innocent parties under suspicion, we desire to state that the families residing at Nos. 27 and 42 respectively, on Pike street, are not in any way connected with the arrested burglar, and were not even acquainted with the chap previous to his arrest. We make this statement in justice to these families, who have always sustained a good reputation among their neighbors and acquaintances.

HATS, CAPS AND FURS.

Preparing for the Fall and Winter Trade at Fleming's Headquarters, 139 Wood Street.

To live in Pittsburgh three months and all the while remain unaware that the city contains a representative Hat, Cap and Fur establishment which puts to blush any found in the more pretentious eastern trade marts, would exhibit gross want of local pride and observation. But such is the case. The house of William Fleming, No. 139 Wood street, while justly taking front rank in the trade of the west, has no superior, if equal, in either Boston, Philadelphia or New York. True, others may be better fitted or occupy handsomer buildings, but in quantity and variety of stock none will surpass. We have had some knowledge of the trade driven by Mr. Fleming, and thought his business had attained its greatest magnitude, but a visit to the establishment yesterday convinced us the increase of trade expected this fall and winter has necessitated the laying in of an immense stock, which in value runs away up in figures. We found the well arranged wholesale and retail departments fairly gorged with goods of the latest and most fashionable styles, embracing all the novelties of the season, many of which are now for the first time introduced in the city. Mr. Fleming calculates to do a very heavy trade the coming season, and why should he not? His name has become as familiar as a household word in every family for hundreds of miles around. Who in this section of country can think of hats, caps and ladies' furs without associating them with the name of this widely known and extensive dealer who has pre-eminently stood at the head of the trade for so many years, and ever sustained an enviable popularity? Indeed, we doubt very much if there is a boy or man in this region that has not at one time or another worn a hat or cap bearing his trade mark, or hardly a miss or matron who has not figured in a set of furs purchased from him, so great have been his sales and so numerous his patrons.

Two leading features in the manner of conducting business at Mr. Fleming's have contributed largely to the success and popularity of the house, and strengthened its reputation. First, it has been the rule to keep nothing but the latest and newest styles, and all goods of the very best material and workmanship, and as to quality no salesman has ever been allowed to make any misrepresentation to deceive patrons, so that they can rely on getting everything which will prove in use or wear even more than is represented at the time of sale. Secondly, the house has always maintained the lead in low prices, from which course they propose never to depart, being content to do large business and secure small profits. The latter is quite an important feature to purchasers, for it is no inconsiderable saving to them to be able to economize from fifteen to twenty-five per cent. on purchases. Probably the latter cause, the prevalence of low prices to both wholesale and retail patrons, has built up the vast trade of this great representative house. Another striking characteristic of management is the fact that at no similar establishment or in any other line of trade, are a more courteous, accommodating and attentive corps of salesmen employed. None need fear or hesitate to visit Fleming's emporium to examine goods, as there is no danger of their being insulted if they depart without being suited or making a purchase, and they are sure of being treated as well and kindly as those who buy thousands of dollars' worth.

As we have before remarked, this house has made the amplest preparation for the transaction of a very heavy trade, and dealers who buy to sell again, as well as retail patrons, should not fail to pay a purchasing or examining visit. The stock consists of all the new styles of hats and caps and ladies' furs. The latter is very large and complete, and embraces all the various grades of Sable, Mink, Siberian Squirrel and Water Mink, in Eugenies, Collars, Boas Cuffs, Berthas and all the numerous makes of patent muffs, together with the new styles of misses' furs, from the lowest to the very highest grades and qualities. The stock is now open and ready for the inspection of customers, and those who buy early will not only secure the advantage of fine selection, but likewise obtain the goods at cheaper prices early in the season than late, as the cost invariably advances as the season progresses. There is hardly any danger of our readers forgetting the place, as it is so familiar to all, No. 139 Wood street, sign of the golden hat.

Advice That Should Be Heeded.

We desire to call the attention of the afflicted to the merits of Roback's Blood Pills, a purely vegetable cathartic, free from mercury and all mineral poisons, and undoubtedly the best remedy extant for the radical cure of nervous and sick headache, bilious disorders and all affections of the Liver and Blood. They are, as their name indicates, a Blood Pill: they search the blood for disease and strike at the very root, thereby effecting not temporary but permanent cures. As a purgative, they are all that can be desired, being mild and safe in their operation and unquestionably one of our most satisfactory Cathartic Pills, and should be kept in every household, and, when taken in conjunction with Roback's Blood Purifier, are unequalled for curing Scrofula, Skin Disease, Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Dyspepsia, Erysipelas, Tumors, Eruptions, and all diseases arising from a disordered state of the blood or a disorganized state of the system. Try these medicines and you will never regret it. Ask those who have used them, and they will tell you they are the best of medicines. Sold by all druggists everywhere. TTST

Liberia.

The report of the condition of affairs in this country, sent to Washington by Commander Jeffers, of the Swatara, is very interesting. The evidences of success in the attempt to introduce civilization into Africa are manifest to the visitor. The great want, however, is capital, while another obstacle has been that the greater part of the immigrants have not been agricultural laborers. Too many are from the Northern cities and of mixed blood, and unable to stand the climate. They resort to trading with the natives for support. For this reason Liberia does not raise sufficient suitable food to support immigrant population, and actually imports it from the United States. The Southern plantation laborers succeed well. Universal suffrage is considered injudicious, and only educated persons are allowed to vote. Commander Jeffers thinks if any impression is to be made on Africa, it will be through this colony, which seems to be based on Christianizing and moralizing principles, while all the other establishments are based on trade in rum, gunpowder and muskets.
